Objective:

The objective of the "Oath on Right to Voter Registration" is to affirm the commitment to uphold the democratic process by ensuring all eligible citizens are registered to vote. It emphasizes the importance of protecting the integrity of voter registration, preventing disenfranchisement, and promoting active civic participation. The oath seeks to reinforce the responsibility of individuals and authorities to safeguard the accessibility and accuracy of voter rolls, thereby supporting a fair and inclusive electoral system.

Description:

KL University Dean Student Affairs Dr.KRS. Prasad suggested Everyone who is eligible should first register as a voter for the right to vote provided by the Constitution of India. Adviser Dean Student Affairs Dr. Habibullah Khan said that as part of the program "Register as a voter for the right to vote" under the auspices of the CSE NSS department of the University, the villagers, students and volunteers took a pledge to exercise their right to vote on 30-08-2024 at Mellampudi Village. As a citizen of India, with faith in democracy, I pledge to uphold the democratic traditions of our country, free, impartial and fair elections, irrespective of religion, caste, region, caste, class, language or any other distinction. We hereby pledge to request our parents, teachers, relatives and friends to vote fearlessly in every election without being influenced by pressures. University NSS Program Coordinator Mr.P.Srikanth Reddy explained. In the program the participating students and volunteers were welcomed by Vice Chancellor Dr.G.Partha Saradhi Varma, Pro Vice Chancellor Dr.AVS.Prasad, Dr.N.Venkatram and others congratulating the program Mr.P.Suresh served as the coordinator.

Outcome:

The event successfully raised awareness about the importance of voter registration and civic participation among students, villagers, and volunteers. Participants committed to upholding democratic values and promoting free, impartial, and fair elections. The initiative fostered a sense of responsibility to vote without bias or pressure, extending this message to their communities. The program strengthened the university's engagement with local communities and reinforced the importance of active citizenship.

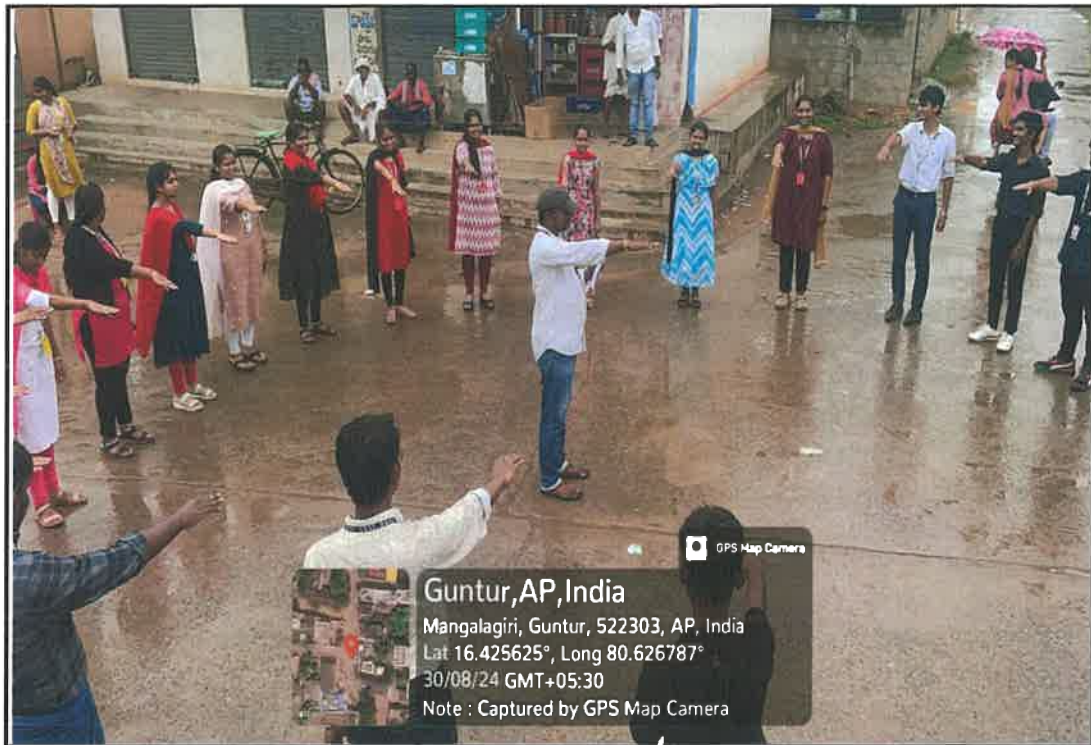

Impact on Society:

The event positively impacted society by empowering individuals to recognize the significance of voter registration and active participation in elections. It encouraged communities to uphold democratic principles and make informed, unbiased voting decisions. This initiative contributed to fostering a more engaged and responsible electorate.
