Objective:

The "Women's Safety Awareness" campaign aims to educate communities on the critical importance of ensuring the safety and well-being of women, both in public and private spaces. The initiative focuses on promoting understanding of gender-based violence, advocating for women's rights, and encouraging respectful and equitable treatment of women. It seeks to empower women through education on personal safety measures, support systems, and legal rights. The campaign also aims to foster community responsibility, ensuring that everyone plays a role in creating a safe and supportive environment for women.

Description:

As part of the Women's Safety Awareness event, NSS volunteers from the Artificial Intelligence & Data Science department at KL University organized an informative session at Pedavadlapudi to promote awareness about women's safety and educate students on the importance of creating a secure environment for women. Through interactive activities, students learned about the significance of women's safety, including understanding personal safety measures and the impacts of gender-based violence. Dr. KRS Prasad, Dean of Student Affairs, emphasized the importance of respecting women's rights and ensuring their safety for long-term societal well-being, while Dr. Tirupathi Reddy, Head of the Department, encouraged students to actively contribute to a safer environment for women. University Vice Chancellor Dr. Partha Saradhi Varma and Pro Vice Chancellor Dr. AVS Prasad highlighted the significance of education in fostering a society that values and upholds women's safety. NSS Program Officer Mr. V. Joe Nithin and Faculty Dr. T. Sajana coordinated the event, sparking discussions on the importance of gender equality and safety. Mr. P. Srikanth Reddy distributed prizes to the children, and organizers Mr. P. Suresh and Mr. G. Chandrasekhar played key roles in making the event engaging and informative. The event saw enthusiastic participation from students, teachers, and community members to spread the message of ensuring women's safety in all spheres of life.

Outcome:

The Women's Safety Awareness event effectively raised awareness about the critical importance of ensuring the safety and well-being of women. The event encouraged respectful and equitable treatment of women among students and the community. It fostered a strong understanding of women's rights and the significance of creating a secure environment for women, leading to heightened awareness about safety measures and gender equality. Through interactive sessions and discussions, participants gained insights into the importance of women's safety, which sparked a commitment to fostering a safer society. The initiative also promoted community engagement by involving teachers, students, and families in understanding the impact of gender-based violence, resulting in a more informed and responsible community. The collective effort highlighted the importance of active participation in promoting women's safety and making conscious choices to ensure a secure future for all women.

Impact on Society:

The Women's Safety Awareness event had a positive societal impact by raising awareness about the importance of ensuring the safety and well-being of women. It inspired students and community members to prioritize women's safety, fostering a culture of respect, awareness, and personal responsibility. By promoting the significance of women's rights and the necessity of a secure environment, the event contributed to the development of a safety-conscious community. This initiative encouraged families and individuals to adopt proactive measures for women's safety, ultimately supporting a more informed and equitable society. By highlighting the benefits of a respectful and secure environment for women, the event played a crucial role in building a community that values and upholds women's safety and rights.

Andhraprabha E-Paper:

The app is a must for women's safety

Mangalagiri, November 5 (Andhraprabha): KL University NSS Program Officer Dr. D. said that women and girls should use the Women Safety App in emergency situations for the safety of women and girls. Usharani is recommended for women. She said that on Tuesday, under the auspices of NSS department of University, volunteers went door-to-door on the safety of women in Pedavadlapudi village of Mangalagiri mandal and told them about the benefits of the app, installed it and explained how to use it. Dr. KRS, head of the student department, said that in case of an accident, even if there is no internet, if the app is opened and the SS option is clicked, the nearby police will reach the incident site and provide help. Prasad said. NSS Program Coordinator Dr. P. Srikanth Reddy informed that if you divert the vehicle to the other side than the way you are going, you should immediately click the SOS option in the app, and if you have to travel alone, it is better to take a photo of the auto number so that the auto driver can see it and send it to someone you know. Volunteers who participated in the program and Field Coordinator P. Suresh were welcomed by University VC Dr. G. Pardhasaradhi Verma, ProVCs Dr. AVS. Prasad, Dr. N. Venkatram, Dr. K. Rajasekhara Rao, Dean Dr. Habibullah Khan and others congratulated.
