Objective:

The objective of creating awareness about digital transactions among villagers is to promote financial literacy and ease of access to digital payment systems. It aims to empower them with knowledge about secure and efficient cashless transactions, reducing dependency on traditional methods. This initiative seeks to foster financial inclusion, improve economic opportunities, and integrate rural communities into the digital economy.

Description:

Dr. K.Subrahmanyam, Principal of KL University College of Sciences, emphasized the importance of secure digital transactions and the need for awareness about safe online financial practices. The program focused on educating participants about the risks of online payments, strategies to prevent fraud, and methods to safeguard personal and financial information. Commended by Vice Chancellor Dr. G. Parthasaradhi Verma, Pro Vice-Chancellor Dr. AVS Prasad, and other university leaders, the initiative aimed to empower individuals with practical knowledge for secure online transactions. Coordinated by Mr. P. Suresh, the program promoted proactive security practices and financial literacy.

Outcome:

The digital transaction awareness program successfully educated participants on secure online payment methods and the importance of safeguarding personal and financial information. It empowered individuals with the knowledge to make informed and secure choices when engaging in digital transactions. The initiative contributed to fostering responsible digital habits and enhancing online financial security within the community.

Impact on Society:

The event significantly raised awareness about digital security, helping individuals protect themselves from online fraud and misuse. It promoted the adoption of secure digital practices, contributing to a safer online financial environment. By empowering the community with essential knowledge, the initiative supported financial inclusion and the integration of rural areas into the digital economy.
