National Service Scheme (NSS)

“Painting to Anganwadi School”

Event : Painting to Anganwadi School

Date : 02-03-2026

Place : Prathuru

Objective:

The objective of painting the Anganwadi School is to create a clean, colorful, and child-friendly learning environment. It aims to improve the appearance of the school and make it more attractive for young children. The activity also encourages better hygiene and a positive atmosphere for early education. Overall, it supports the development and well-being of children by enhancing their learning space.

Description:

As per the directions of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, National Service Scheme (NSS), and in accordance with the guidelines of the Regional Directorate, Hyderabad and Andhra Pradesh State NSS, the NSS Unit-7 of the ECE Department, KL University carried out a service activity on Monday, 2nd March 2026, in Prathuru village of Tadepalli Mandal as part of the NSS Special Camp. Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. K.R.S. Prasad, stated that NSS volunteers painted the Anganwadi School and decorated it with creative artwork.

The volunteers undertook this activity to enhance the appearance of the Anganwadi School by painting the walls with fresh colors and creating attractive artwork inside the classrooms. Head of the ECE Department, Dr. I. Govardhani, mentioned that the walls were decorated with educational illustrations such as alphabets, numbers, animals, birds, and nature scenes, which help in making learning more engaging for children.

NSS Program Coordinator, Dr. P. Srikant Reddy, explained that this initiative created a clean, pleasant, and child-friendly environment, encouraging young children to show more interest in learning. He also added that such visual learning aids support creativity and help children remember concepts more easily.

NSS Program Officer, Dr. K. Venkata Kishore, stated that this activity not only enhanced the school's appearance but also reflected the NSS spirit of community service. He emphasized that such initiatives help improve educational infrastructure in rural areas and instill awareness about cleanliness, aesthetics, and responsibility among children.

The program was successfully coordinated by NSS Field Coordinator Mr. P. Suresh. The volunteers were appreciated for their efforts by University Vice-Chancellor Dr. G. Parthasarathi Varma, Pro Vice-Chancellors Dr. A.V.S. Prasad, Dr. N. Venkataram, and Dr. K. Rajashekhara Rao, along with Dean Advisors Dr. Habibullah Khan, Registrar Dr. K. Subbarao, Principal Dr. V. Rajesh, Associate Dean Dr. Shanta Sri, and other dignitaries.

Outcome:

The outcome of the program was highly positive as the Anganwadi school was transformed into a clean, colorful, and child-friendly learning space. The improved environment increased children's interest and engagement in learning activities. The educational paintings helped enhance understanding and creativity among students. Overall, the program contributed to a better learning atmosphere and development of young children.

Impact on Society:

The program has a positive impact on society by improving early childhood education infrastructure in rural areas. It creates a supportive and engaging environment that encourages young children to learn and grow. The initiative also promotes community awareness about the importance of maintaining clean and attractive educational spaces. Overall, it contributes to building a better educated, responsible, and progressive society.
