“Painting in the Library Building”

The poster features the KL University logo and the NSS Unit logo at the top. The main title 'PAINTING IN THE LIBRARY BUILDING' is written in large, colorful, brush-stroke letters. Below the title, it says 'CLEAN WALLS, BRIGHT MINDS, BETTER LIBRARY' and 'Let's paint today for a brighter tomorrow.' The central image shows five NSS volunteers painting a library building. To the left, a green box titled 'WHY IT MATTERS' lists five points: Improves Learning Space, Creates a Clean & Pleasant Environment, Encourages Creativity, Builds Team Spirit & Responsibility, and Our Library, Our Pride. Below this, a section titled 'WHAT WE WILL DO' lists six tasks: CLEAN THE WALLS, PREPARE THE SURFACE, PAINT WITH CARE, ADD COLOR & LIFE, CLEAN UP TOGETHER, and BUILD A BETTER LIBRARY. At the bottom, it provides the DATE (25-03-2026 WEDNESDAY), PLACE (NUTAKKI VILLAGE), and WHO CAN JOIN? (ALL STUDENTS AND VOLUNTEERS ARE WELCOME!). The footer says 'TOGETHER, LET'S GIVE OUR LIBRARY A FRESH LOOK AND A BRIGHT FUTURE!' and 'Organized by: NSS Unit, KL University'.

Event : Painting in the Library Building
Date : 25-03-2026
Place : Nutakki

Objective:

The objective of the Painting in the Library Building program is to create a clean, attractive, and inspiring environment for learning. It aims to improve the appearance of the library, making it more welcoming and motivating for students and visitors. The program also promotes cleanliness, creativity, and better maintenance of educational spaces. Overall, it supports a positive reading atmosphere and encourages community participation in enhancing public learning facilities.

Description:

As per the directions of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, National Service Scheme (NSS), and in accordance with the guidelines of the Regional Directorate, Hyderabad and Andhra Pradesh State NSS, the NSS Unit-6 of the CS&IT Department, KL University organized a Library Building Painting Program on Wednesday, 25th March 2026, in Nuthakki village as part of the NSS Special Camp. Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. K.R.S. Prasad, stated that the initiative was undertaken as an important social service activity to make the educational environment of the village library more attractive, clean, and inspiring.

Head of the CS&IT Department, Dr. A. V. Praveen Krishna, explained that the program included painting the library building, cleaning the walls, and designing inspirational quotes, educational artwork, and creative visuals to motivate students. He noted that giving the old building a fresh new appearance made the library more pleasant and increased students' interest in reading and learning. NSS Programme Coordinator, Dr. P. Srikant Reddy, emphasized that a library is a temple of knowledge, and beautifying such a place can inspire students to develop a stronger habit of reading. He stated that clean and attractive surroundings encourage students to spend more time in the library, making the initiative not just a beautification effort but also a meaningful step toward strengthening educational values.

NSS Programme Officer, Dr. N. Praveen, highlighted that the volunteers worked together with dedication and a spirit of service, delivering a powerful message about the importance of education in society. He stated that the program, conducted with the vision "Beautiful Libraries Inspire Better Learning," contributes to students' mental development, a clean academic atmosphere, and the reputation of the institution. The program was successfully coordinated by NSS Field Coordinator Mr. P. Suresh. The volunteers were appreciated by University Vice-Chancellor Dr. G. Parthasarathi Varma, Pro Vice-Chancellors Dr. A.V.S. Prasad, Dr. N. Venkataram, and

Dr. K. Rajashekhara Rao, along with Dean Advisors Dr. Habibullah Khan, Registrar Dr. K. Subbarao, Principal Dr. V. Rajesh, Advisor Dr. Habibullah Khan, Associate Dean Dr. Shanta Sri, and other dignitaries.

Outcome:

The outcome of the program was positive as the library building was transformed into a clean, attractive, and motivating educational space. Students and villagers developed greater interest in visiting the library and engaging in reading activities. The initiative also promoted awareness about the importance of maintaining educational institutions. Overall, the program enhanced the learning environment and encouraged a stronger culture of education.

Impact on Society:

The program has a positive impact on society by promoting the value of education and improving public learning spaces. It encourages students and community members to develop reading habits and utilize educational resources effectively. The initiative also inspires collective responsibility in maintaining knowledge centers. Overall, it contributes to building a more educated, aware, and progressive society.
