Event : Beautification of Anganwadi School

Date : 25-03-2026

Place : Mellampudi

Objective:

The objective of beautification of an Anganwadi school is to create a clean, safe, and child-friendly environment for early learning. It aims to make the center more attractive and engaging through colorful walls, educational paintings, and proper facilities. This encourages children to attend regularly and improves their interest in learning. It also promotes hygiene, health awareness, and overall well-being of children and the community.

Description:

As per the directions of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, National Service Scheme (NSS), and in accordance with the guidelines of the Regional Directorate, Hyderabad and Andhra Pradesh State NSS, the NSS Unit–CSE-1 of KL University organized a community service activity on Wednesday, 25th March 2026, in Mellampudi village as part of the NSS Special Camp. Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. K.R.S. Prasad, stated that the program aimed to transform the Anganwadi centre into a clean, attractive, and child-friendly space, with a focus on improving the learning environment for young children.

Head of the CSE-1 Department, Dr. K. Amarendra, explained that the initiative helped provide a clean and safe environment for children, increased their interest in school, and created awareness about cleanliness and social responsibility within the community. NSS Programme Coordinator, Dr. P. Srikant Reddy, highlighted that volunteers carried out activities such as painting walls, drawing educational illustrations like alphabets and numbers, cleaning the surroundings, planting trees to enhance greenery, and decorating classrooms to make them more appealing.

NSS Programme Officer, Dr. G. Anjaneyulu, stated that such initiatives help improve children's creativity, increase their interest in learning, and create a healthy and hygienic environment. He also emphasized that the program promotes a spirit of service among students and strengthens community participation.

The program was successfully coordinated by NSS Field Coordinator Mr. P. Suresh. The volunteers were appreciated by University Vice-Chancellor Dr. G. Parthasarathi Varma, Pro Vice-Chancellors Dr. A.V.S. Prasad, Dr. N. Venkataram, and Dr. K. Rajashekhara Rao, along with Dean Advisors Dr. Habibullah Khan, Registrar Dr. K. Subbarao, Principal Dr. V. Rajesh, Advisor Dr. Habibullah Khan, Associate Dean Dr. Shanta Sri, and other dignitaries.

Outcome:

The outcome of the program was positive as the Anganwadi centre became clean, attractive, and child-friendly. Children showed increased interest in learning and participation in activities. The initiative also raised awareness about cleanliness and community responsibility among villagers. Overall, the program improved the learning environment and supported children's development.

Impact on Society:

The program has a positive impact on society by improving early childhood education environments and promoting hygiene. It encourages community participation in maintaining public facilities and supporting children's development. The initiative also spreads awareness about cleanliness and social responsibility. Overall, it contributes to building a healthier, more responsible, and child-friendly society.
