Essay Writing Competition to School Students

Event : Essay Writing Competition to School Students

Date : 04-11-2025

Place : Pedapalem

Objective:

The objective of the essay writing competition organized on the occasion of NSS Day was to encourage school students to express their thoughts on social service and nation building. It aimed to create awareness about the values and objectives of the National Service Scheme. The competition helped students develop creative thinking, writing skills, and social awareness. It motivated students to reflect on community issues and social responsibility. The activity promoted a spirit of volunteerism and civic engagement among young minds. Overall, it nurtured responsible, socially conscious, and confident students.

Description:

Dr. K.R.S. Prasad, Dean of Student Affairs, informed that the National Service Scheme (NSS) of KL University, under the aegis of the CS & IT Department, organized essay writing competitions for students on Tuesday at the Zilla Parishad High School, Pedapalem village, Duggirala Mandal, in connection with NSS Day. Addressing the gathering, Dr. A.V. Praveen Krishna, Head of the CS & IT Department, emphasized that students should actively participate in social service activities from their student life itself. He encouraged them to join service-oriented organizations such as NSS, Scouts and Guides, and NCC, which play a vital role in serving society. NSS Programme Officer Dr. N. Praveena stated that essay writing competitions were conducted as part of NSS Day celebrations and prizes were distributed to the winners. She added that such competitions help identify the hidden talents of students.

NSS Programme Coordinator Mr. P. Srikanth Reddy remarked that encouraging students through such platforms would help them achieve better results in the future and become responsible citizens. The programme was coordinated by NSS Field Coordinator Mr. P. Suresh. The NSS volunteers were appreciated for their efforts by KL University Vice-Chancellor Dr. G. Parthasaradhi Varma, Pro Vice-Chancellors Dr. A.V.S. Prasad, Dr. N. Venkatram, and Dr. K. Rajashekar Rao, and Advisor to the Dean of Student Affairs Dr. Habibullah Khan, among others.

Outcome:

The essay writing competition enhanced students' awareness about the values and objectives of the National Service Scheme. It encouraged students to think critically about social service and community responsibility. The event helped identify and nurture students' hidden talents in writing and expression. Participation boosted students' confidence and communication skills. The competition motivated students to engage in service-oriented activities from an early age. Overall, the program contributed to shaping socially responsible and creative young citizens.

Impact on Society:

The event had a positive impact on society by instilling values of service, discipline, and social responsibility among school students. It encouraged young minds to think about community welfare and nation building. Awareness about NSS and other service organizations motivated students to participate in social activities. The program helped develop responsible future citizens with a sense of civic duty. It strengthened the connection between educational institutions and the local community. Overall, the initiative contributed to building a socially conscious and service-oriented society.
