Event : Volunteers Serving Devotees for Maha Shivaratri
Date : 15-02-2026
Place : Thallayapalem

Objective:

The objective of volunteers serving devotees during Maha Shivaratri is to ensure a smooth and comfortable experience for all pilgrims. It aims to assist devotees by providing guidance, managing queues, and maintaining discipline at temple premises. The programme focuses on offering basic services such as drinking water, first aid, and information support. It also promotes safety and crowd management during the large gatherings associated with the festival. Through volunteer service, a sense of compassion, selfless service, and community spirit is encouraged. Ultimately, the initiative seeks to uphold the sanctity of the festival while ensuring the well-being of devotees.

Description:

Under the aegis of KL University NSS, volunteers participated in the “Volunteers Serving Devotees for Maha Shivaratri” programme on the occasion of Maha Shivaratri at the Shaiva temple in Thallayapalem village of Tulluru Mandal on Sunday, 15th February 2026, informed Dr. K.R.S. Prasad, Dean of Student Affairs, KL University. He stated that the volunteers guided devotees, managed queues efficiently, and ensured discipline within the temple premises. They also provided essential services such as drinking water, prasadam, and annadanam arrangements, helping devotees reduce fatigue during their visit.

The volunteers offered first aid services whenever required and extended support to elderly people and children. NSS Programme Coordinator P. Srikant Reddy mentioned that volunteers took special care in maintaining cleanliness in and around the temple by collecting waste and ensuring a hygienic environment. They also assisted in traffic regulation to ensure smooth movement of devotees and worked in coordination with security personnel. Devotees appreciated the dedicated services of the volunteers, stating that their assistance made the darshan process smooth and comfortable.

The services rendered by the volunteers during Maha Shivaratri were described as exemplary and inspirational to society. Several Programme Officers stated that such service activities should continue in the future, and certificates were distributed to the volunteers in recognition of their efforts. The programme was coordinated by NSS Field Coordinator P. Suresh. The efforts of the volunteers were appreciated by KL University Vice-Chancellor Dr. G. Parthasarathi Varma, Pro Vice-Chancellors Dr. A.V.S. Prasad, Dr. N. Venkataram, Dr. K. Rajasekhara Rao, Dean Advisors Dr. Habibulla Khan, Registrar Dr. K. Subba Rao, Principal Dr. V. Rajesh, Dean Dr. Habibulla Khan, Associate Dean Dr. Shantha Sri, and other dignitaries.

Outcome:

The programme resulted in a well-organized and smooth experience for devotees during the Maha Shivaratri celebrations. Volunteers effectively managed crowds and queues, reducing congestion and ensuring orderly darshan. Devotees benefited from essential services such as drinking water, prasadam, and first aid, which enhanced their comfort and safety. The initiative strengthened the spirit of service, compassion, and teamwork among the volunteers. It also improved cleanliness and hygiene in and around the temple premises. Overall, the event successfully demonstrated the importance of community service and volunteerism in large public gatherings.

Impact on Society:

The programme had a positive impact on society by promoting the spirit of selfless service and community involvement. It encouraged people, especially youth, to actively participate in social and religious service activities. The initiative improved the overall management of large gatherings, ensuring safety, discipline, and convenience for devotees. It also raised awareness about cleanliness and hygiene in public places. The volunteers' efforts strengthened trust and cooperation between the community and institutions. Overall, the event inspired a culture of service, responsibility, and social harmony in society.
