"Awareness on Nutrition Food to Villagers"

Event : Awareness on Nutrition Food to Villagers
Date : 18-09-2026
Place : Pedavadlapudi

Objective:

The objective of the programme is to create awareness among villagers about the importance of nutritious and balanced food for maintaining good health. It aims to educate people about the benefits of consuming fresh fruits, vegetables, whole grains, pulses, and other locally available nutritious foods. The campaign encourages healthy eating habits to prevent malnutrition, anemia, and nutrition-related health problems among children, women, and adults. Overall, it seeks to promote nutritional awareness and improve the health and well-being of rural communities.

Description:

As part of the Social Responsibility and Community Service Programme, the NSS Cell and Department of Computer Science and Engineering–2 (CSE-2), KL University, organised a "Campaign on Nutritious Food for Villagers" at Pedavadlapudi Village, Mangalagiri Mandal, Guntur District, on Friday, 18 September 2026. The programme was conducted in accordance with the directions of the National Service Scheme (NSS), Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, and the guidelines of the Regional Directorate of NSS, Hyderabad, and the Andhra Pradesh State NSS. Dean of Student Affairs Dr. KRS. Prasad highlighted the importance of nutritious food in maintaining good health and preventing nutritional deficiencies.

Head of the Department of CSE-2 Dr. B. Tirupathi Reddy explained that people should include leafy greens, vegetables, fruits, pulses, millets, and protein-rich foods in their daily diet. He emphasised that a balanced diet provides essential nutrients required for healthy growth and overall well-being. NSS Programme Officer Dr. C. H. Nagamani advised villagers to give special attention to the nutritional needs of children, pregnant women, lactating mothers, and the elderly. She also encouraged them to reduce the consumption of junk food and foods high in sugar and oil, while maintaining food hygiene and drinking safe water.

NSS Programme Coordinator Dr. P. Srikanth Reddy stated that NSS volunteers educated villagers about adopting healthy eating habits and preventing malnutrition. NSS Field Coordinator Mr. P. Suresh coordinated the programme and ensured its successful conduct. The University Vice-Chancellor Dr. G. Parthasarathi Varma, Pro Vice-Chancellors Dr. N. Venkatram and Dr. K. Rajashekhara Rao, Registrar Dr. I. Pavan Kumar, Principal Dr. T. K. Ramakrishna Rao, Advisor Dr. Habibulla Khan, Associate Dean Dr. Shantisri, and other university officials participated in the programme.

Outcome:

The programme successfully created awareness among villagers about the importance of nutritious food and a balanced diet for maintaining good health. Participants gained knowledge about the benefits of consuming leafy greens, vegetables, fruits, pulses, millets, and protein-rich foods. The campaign encouraged families to reduce junk food consumption and adopt safe food and drinking water practices. Overall, the programme motivated villagers to develop healthy eating habits and take preventive measures against malnutrition.

Impact on Society:

The programme helped improve community awareness about the importance of nutritious food and balanced diets for a healthy life. It encouraged villagers to adopt healthy eating habits, reduce the consumption of junk food, and maintain proper food hygiene. The awareness created among families can help prevent malnutrition and improve the health of children, women, and elderly people. Overall, the initiative contributed to building a healthier, nutrition-conscious, and well-informed rural community.
