"Protect Girl Child Build a Better Future"

Event : Protect Girl Child Build a Better Future
Date : 09-10-2026
Place : Pedavadlapudi

Objective:

The objective of "Protect Girl Child – Build a Better Future" is to create awareness about the safety, rights, dignity, and empowerment of girl children. The programme aims to prevent gender-based discrimination, child marriage, abuse, and other forms of violence against girls. It encourages equal access to education, healthcare, nutrition, and opportunities for personal development. Overall, the initiative seeks to promote a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment where every girl child can grow, learn, and achieve her full potential.

Description:

As per the directives of the National Service Scheme (NSS), Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, and the guidelines of the Regional Directorate of NSS, Hyderabad, and the Andhra Pradesh State NSS authorities, KL University NSS, in collaboration with the Department of CSE-2, organized a "Protect Girl Child – Build a Better Future" programme on Friday, 9 October 2026, at a high school in Pedavadlapudi Village, Mangalagiri Mandal, Guntur District, on the occasion of International Girl Child Protection Day. As part of the Social Responsibility and Community Service Programme, NSS faculty members and volunteers created awareness among high school girls about basic self-defense techniques, informed Dr. K. R. S. Prasad, Dean of Student Affairs.

During the programme, the girls were educated about staying alert in emergency situations, responding courageously to potential threats, and practicing basic self-protection techniques. The participants were encouraged to build self-confidence, develop courage, and face challenges with determination.

Dr. B. Tirupathi Reddy, Head of the Department of CSE-2, emphasized that every girl deserves access to education, healthcare, safety, and equal opportunities. He encouraged the students to pursue their ambitions and work towards achieving their goals. Dr. C. H. Nagamani, NSS Programme Officer, advised the girls not to remain silent or panic when faced with harassment or unsafe situations, but to seek help from trusted adults, teachers, or the appropriate authorities.

Dr. P. Srikanth Reddy, NSS Programme Coordinator, called upon students and volunteers to promote awareness of girls' safety and self-defence and contribute towards building a safer and more inclusive society. The programme aimed to strengthen the girls' self-confidence, improve their awareness of personal safety, and encourage them to protect themselves and seek timely assistance when necessary.

Mr. P. Suresh, NSS Field Coordinator, coordinated the programme and contributed to its successful organization. Dr. G. Parthasarathi Varma, Vice-Chancellor; Dr. N. Venkatram and Dr. K. Rajashekhara Rao, Pro Vice-Chancellors; Dr. I. Pavan Kumar, Registrar; Dr. T. K. Ramakrishna Rao, Principal; Dr. Habibulla Khan, Advisor; Dr. Shantisri, Associate Dean; and other dignitaries supported the initiative.

Outcome:

The programme successfully created awareness among high school girls about personal safety, basic self-defense techniques, and the importance of staying alert in emergency situations. Participants were encouraged to develop self-confidence, courage, and the ability to respond appropriately to unsafe situations. The programme highlighted the importance of seeking help from trusted adults, teachers, and relevant authorities when facing harassment or threats. Overall, the initiative empowered girls with safety awareness and encouraged them to pursue their goals with confidence and determination.

Impact on Society:

The programme raised community awareness about girl child safety, self-defense, and the importance of protecting girls from harassment and violence. It encouraged students, parents, and community members to support girls' rights, education, dignity, and equal opportunities. The initiative promoted confidence among girls and emphasized the importance of seeking timely assistance in unsafe situations. Overall, the programme contributed to building a safer, more inclusive and supportive society where every girl can grow and achieve her full potential.

Self-Defence Training Builds Confidence Among Girls

Mangalagiri Rural: Dr. K.R.S. Prasad, Dean of Student Affairs at KL University, stated that girls can develop self-confidence by learning self-defence techniques. An awareness programme on self-defence skills was organised on Friday for the girl students of Nagarjuna High School in Pedavadlapudi village, under the joint auspices of the University National Service Scheme (NSS) and the CSE-2 Department. Dr. B. Tirupathi Reddy, Head of the CSE-2 Department, advised the students to prioritise their personal safety while remaining focused on achieving their goals. NSS Programme Officer Dr. C.H. Nagamani stated that respecting children's rights and providing equal opportunities to every child is everyone's responsibility. Later, drawing and essay-writing competitions were conducted for the students. The winners were awarded certificates, mementos, and prizes. NSS Field Coordinator P. Suresh coordinated the programme.
