Orders of the Vice Chancellor dt.03.08.2019

CIRCULAR

Sub: Anti Ragging Campaign – reg.

Ref: Letter dated 31.07.2019 from Dr.Habibulla Khan, Dean (Student Affairs).

K L University has been declared as ragging free University.

The senior students in all the programmes are hereby instructed not to resort to any acts towards their juniors, which may be construed as ragging. Ragging of any kind is prohibited by law. Students indulging in acts of ragging, either directly or indirectly, are punishable for varying period of imprisonment, as per law, as well as the minimum punishment that will be inflicted by the University will be rustication from the University.

The University has already constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee consisting of 22 teachers and the junior students have been provided with the mobile phone numbers of all the members of the Anti-Ragging Committee. Any complaint by a junior student against a senior student, who might resort to ragging, will be viewed seriously and immediate action will be initiated.

The details as to what amounts to ragging as per Law and the punishment prescribed are prominently displayed on Special Notice Boards on the Campus.

Therefore, senior students are hereby instructed to behave decently with their juniors and never give scope for the junior to feel that they are being ragged.

The Heads of the Departments are therefore requested to ensure that this information is brought to the notice of all the senior year students of their respective departments.
