ANTI DRUG & ANTI RAGGING AWARENESS PROGRAM

Event Details:

Date : December 13, 2023

Time : 10.00 A.M to 5.00 PM

Venue : New Seminar Hall.

Organizers: KL SAC in collaboration with KL Radio.

Objective:

The primary objective of an anti-ragging awareness program in a university is to create a safe and inclusive campus environment free from harassment, intimidation, or discrimination. It aims to educate students about the serious legal, academic, and disciplinary consequences of ragging while promoting values of mutual respect, empathy, and understanding to foster healthy peer relationships. Such programs highlight the university's anti-ragging policies, rules, and disciplinary actions, ensuring students are well-informed about the institutional and legal frameworks in place to prevent such behaviour.

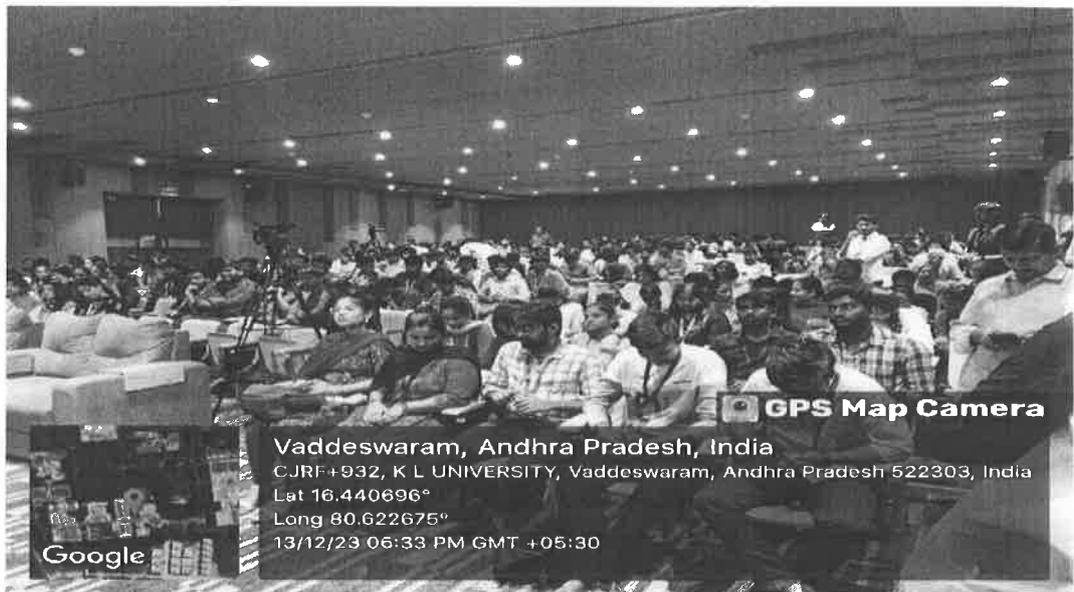

Additionally, the program seeks to empower victims to report incidents without fear of retaliation by emphasizing the availability of support systems like anti-ragging cells, helplines, and counselling services. It encourages students to take personal responsibility for maintaining a ragging-free environment and stresses the importance of peer accountability. By promoting the role of senior students as mentors and positive role models, the program also works to instil a culture of leadership and respect. Ultimately, the initiative aims to bring about long-term behavioural changes, ensuring a harmonious academic atmosphere and preparing students for respectful and professional interactions beyond university life.

Description :
