This is possible with the sincere efforts of entire anti-ragging committee and the team of vigilance officers. The Dean (SA) thanked all the members for this achievement.

Discussion on Agenda Items:

Agenda-1: Measures to curb Anti-ragging

To address the issue of ragging within the university, several measures have been implemented. Firstly, an extensive awareness program has been organized for first-year students to educate them about the detrimental effects of ragging and the importance of fostering a safe and inclusive campus environment. Additionally, the installation of an increased number of closed-circuit cameras across the campus aims to enhance surveillance and deter any incidents of ragging. Furthermore, surprise visits conducted by the anti-ragging committee in various areas including campus premises, hostels, and buses have reported no instances of ragging, indicating the efficacy of preventive measures. Moreover, strict enforcement of a zero-tolerance policy against ragging is upheld, ensuring severe consequences for both perpetrators and facilitators of such behavior. These comprehensive measures collectively strive to curb ragging and promote a harmonious and respectful atmosphere within the university community.

It was decided to arrange an awareness program on anti-ragging for the first-year students.
