AWARENESS ON DIWALI CELEBRATIONS Dt:04.11.20

Diwali is a festival of lights and one of the major festivals celebrated by Hindus, Jains and Sikhs. One of the most popular festivals of Hinduism, Diwali symbolizes the spiritual "victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance". Furthermore, it is, in some regions, a celebration of the day Lord Rama returned to his kingdom Ayodhya with his wife Sita and his brother Lakshmana after defeating Ravana in Lanka and serving 14 years of exile.

Let's celebrate the festival in the true sense by spreading joy and light up the world of others. May the beauty of the festival of lights fill your home with happiness and bring joy, peace, and prosperity in your life.

Team PULSE wishing you and your family a Happy Diwali

These dazzling fireworks lead to thousands of emergency room visits each year during Diwali. They may cause serious injuries, some of which are irreversible. Here are a few ways to celebrate Diwali in a healthy and safe manner.

Team PULSE advise you to observe the precautions while bursting crackers and celebrate this Diwali with joy and Happiness.

Do's

- Buy firecrackers from licensed shops only
- Read instructions on cracker packets
- Keep children away from firecrackers
- Wear cotton clothes and shoes
- Keep buckets of water handy for an emergency.

Dont's

- Don't light crackers in hand.
- Never throw half-burnt crackers,
- Don't wear silk and synthetic fabric outdoors
- Don't burst crackers indoor
- Don't put fire crackers in your pocket
- Don't fiddle with an unburst cracker
- Don't burst crackers near stray animals, on road or near hospitals
- Don't approach immediately to the misfired fireworks.
