RALLY ON NATIONAL GIRLS CHILD DAY

Date : 24/01/2026
Time : 12:30 P.M to 1:30 P.M
Venue : Namburu Village.

OBJECTIVES

The rally aimed to raise awareness about the rights and importance of girl children. It sought to promote gender equality and eliminate discrimination against girls. The event intended to educate participants on issues like female infanticide and child marriage. It aimed to inspire the community to support girl child education and empowerment. The rally endeavored to encourage active participation in protecting and nurturing girl children.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized a Rally on National Girl Child Day on 24/01/2026 at Namburu Village to raise awareness about the importance of girl child education and empowerment. The event saw enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and local residents, who came together to advocate for gender equality and the rights of girls in the community. The rally featured colorful banners, placards, and slogans emphasizing the value of girls and the need to protect their rights. The initiative aimed to sensitize the villagers about issues such as female education, health, and social empowerment, fostering a supportive environment for girl children.

During the rally, participants actively engaged with the local community, distributing informative pamphlets and interacting with residents to highlight the significance of celebrating and safeguarding the girl child. The event concluded with a pledge by the participants to promote gender equality and work towards the holistic development of girls in the village. The rally not only created awareness but also inspired collective responsibility among the villagers to support and nurture the potential of every girl child, reinforcing the mission of the KLEF Women Development Cell in fostering social change.

OUTCOMES

The rally raised awareness among villagers about the importance of educating and empowering girl children. Local community members actively participated, showing strong support for gender equality initiatives. Students and faculty of KLEF promoted messages on girls' rights, safety, and well-being effectively. The event encouraged open discussions on social issues affecting girl children in the region. It strengthened the visibility and impact of the KLEF Women Development Cell's advocacy efforts.

GUEST LECTURE ON SAFETY OF GIRLS

Date : 10/01/2026
Time : 10:00 A.M to 11:00 A.M
Venue : R & D Theater

OBJECTIVES

It aimed to create awareness among girl students about personal safety and security measures. It intended to educate participants about legal rights and protective laws available for women. It sought to build confidence and encourage self-defense and assertive communication skills. It focused on informing students about cyber safety and precautions against online harassment. It endeavored to promote a safe and supportive campus environment for all girls.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell successfully organized a Guest Lecture on the Safety of Girls on 10/01/2026 at KLEF. The program was graced by Smt. Vangalapudi Anitha, Hon'ble Home Minister of Andhra Pradesh, who addressed the students and faculty on the importance of awareness, vigilance, and proactive measures to ensure the safety of girls in all spheres of life. The lecture emphasized the role of education, community support, and legal safeguards in creating a safe environment for young women. The session also highlighted practical strategies for self-protection and the responsibilities of society and government in preventing crimes against girls.

During the interactive session, the participants actively engaged with Smt. Anitha, asking questions about preventive measures, safety apps, and legal remedies available for women in distress. The resource person shared her extensive experience in law enforcement and policymaking, inspiring the audience to become advocates for girls' safety in their communities. The lecture concluded with a call for collective responsibility, encouraging both students and staff to remain vigilant, promote awareness, and support initiatives aimed at ensuring the security and well-being of girls.

OUTCOMES

The program on Safety of Girls conducted by the KLEF Women Development Cell created significant awareness among students about personal safety and legal rights. Participants gained knowledge about preventive measures, self-protection strategies, and available support systems. The session strengthened students' confidence to report harassment and seek timely help. It encouraged open discussions on gender sensitivity and collective responsibility. Overall, the initiative promoted a safer and more secure campus environment for girl students.

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR THE ELIMINATION OF VIOLENCE AGAINST

Date : 01/12/2025
Time : 3:00 P.M to 4:00 P.M
Venue : Rose Hall

OBJECTIVES

The program aimed to create awareness among students and staff about the elimination of violence against women and girls. It intended to educate participants on legal provisions and support systems available for victims of violence. The initiative sought to promote gender equality and foster a safe and respectful campus environment. It focused on encouraging individuals to speak up and report incidents of violence without fear. The event aspired to strengthen collective responsibility in preventing and addressing all forms of violence.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized an awareness program on the occasion of the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women on 01/12/2025 at KLEF. The event aimed to educate students and staff about the various forms of violence against women and the legal measures available for their protection. Smt. Vijaya Kanakala, Former Member, State Level Advisory CoPCPNDT Act, Government of Andhra Pradesh, served as the resource person and delivered an insightful lecture on the significance of this day, highlighting both social and legal perspectives. The session included discussions on preventive measures, reporting mechanisms, and the importance of community awareness in combating violence against women.

During the program, participants actively engaged in interactive sessions led by Smt. Vijaya Kanakala, which provided practical guidance on recognizing and addressing violence. Case studies and real-life examples were shared to create a deeper understanding of the challenges women face and the importance of timely intervention. The program successfully instilled awareness about the legal rights and responsibilities of citizens in ensuring women's safety. Overall, the event was impactful in sensitizing the KLEF community toward eliminating violence against women and promoting a safer, more inclusive environment.

OUTCOMES

The program enhanced awareness among students and staff about different forms of violence and their impact on individuals and society. It strengthened participants' understanding of legal provisions and support systems available for victims. The session encouraged open discussions, helping attendees develop confidence to report incidents of violence. It promoted a culture of respect, equality, and zero tolerance towards violence within the campus. The initiative motivated participants to actively contribute towards creating a safe and inclusive environment at KLEF.

AWARENESS PROGRAM ON ATROCITIES AGAINST WOMEN: SEXUAL HARASSMENT AT WORKPLACE AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Date : 26/09/2025
Time : 03:00 P.M to 4:00 P.M
Venue : Rose Hall

OBJECTIVES

The program aimed to create awareness among participants about atrocities against women, particularly sexual harassment at the workplace and domestic violence. It intended to educate attendees about the legal provisions and protective laws related to workplace harassment and domestic abuse. The session sought to inform participants about preventive measures and reporting mechanisms available within the institution. It focused on promoting gender equality, respect, and a safe environment for women both at home and at the workplace. The program also encouraged participants to speak up against injustice and support victims of harassment and violence.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized an Awareness Program on atrocities against women, focusing on sexual harassment at the workplace and domestic violence, on 26/09/2025 at KLEF. The program aimed to sensitize students and staff about the legal provisions, preventive measures, and support systems available to protect women from such offenses. Ms. Vasanthi Bodlapati, Legal Cum Probation Officer of the District Child Protection Unit, Guntur, served as the resource person and shared her expert insights on the subject, highlighting real-life cases and emphasizing the importance of reporting and intervention.

During the session, participants actively engaged in discussions, raising questions about legal rights and remedies available to victims of harassment and domestic violence. The resource person elaborated on the roles of authorities, NGOs, and community support networks in ensuring women's safety. The program concluded with a practical guide for students and staff on identifying, preventing, and responding to incidents of sexual harassment and domestic violence, thereby fostering awareness and promoting a safer, more supportive environment at KLEF.

OUTCOMES

The program enhanced participants' awareness about atrocities against women, particularly issues related to sexual harassment at the workplace and domestic violence. It helped students and staff understand their legal rights, reporting mechanisms, and available support systems. The session encouraged victims and bystanders to speak up against abuse and discrimination. It promoted a sense of responsibility to maintain a safe and respectful environment within the institution and society. The program strengthened confidence among women to protect themselves and seek timely help when faced with harassment or violence.

SEMINAR ON WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

Date : 22/09/2025
Time : 03:00 P.M to 04:00 P.M
Venue : Rose Hall

OBJECTIVES

The seminar aimed to create awareness about the importance of women empowerment in social, economic, and professional spheres. It intended to educate participants about the rights, opportunities, and government schemes available for women. It sought to inspire women students and staff to develop leadership qualities and self-confidence. It focused on encouraging financial independence and entrepreneurial skills among women. It aimed to promote gender equality and motivate participants to contribute towards building an inclusive society.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized a Seminar on Women Empowerment on 22/09/2025 at KLEF with the objective of promoting awareness on gender equality and the overall development of women in society. The program was conducted in a well-coordinated manner with active participation from students, faculty members, and staff. The seminar commenced with a formal welcome address, followed by an introduction of the resource person, Sri. Krishna Prabhu, who was invited to share his valuable insights on the theme of women empowerment.

During the session, Sri. Krishna Prabhu elaborated on the importance of education, self-confidence, leadership qualities, and financial independence for women's progress. He highlighted the role of institutions and society in creating equal opportunities and ensuring a safe and supportive environment for women. The seminar concluded with an interactive session where participants clarified their doubts and expressed their views, making the event informative and impactful for all attendees.

OUTCOMES

The seminar on Women Empowerment conducted by the Women Development Cell of KLEF Women Development Cell enhanced awareness among participants about women's rights and gender equality. It strengthened the confidence and leadership skills of students and faculty members. The session encouraged open discussions on challenges faced by women in society and workplaces. Participants gained knowledge about legal provisions and support systems available for women. The program inspired attendees to actively contribute towards creating a safe and inclusive environment on campus and beyond.

SEMINAR ON PROTECTION OF WOMEN FROM DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Date : 29/08/2025
Time : 04:00 P.M to 5:00 P.M
Venue : Jasmine Hall

OBJECTIVES

The seminar aimed to create awareness about the provisions of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act and its legal implications. It intended to educate participants about various forms of domestic violence and their impact on women's physical and mental well-being. The program sought to inform women about their legal rights, remedies, and support systems available for protection. It focused on encouraging victims to report incidents and seek timely assistance from appropriate authorities. The seminar also aimed to promote a safe, respectful, and violence-free environment within families and society.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized a Seminar on Protection of Women from Domestic Violence on 29/08/2025 at KLEF. The event aimed to raise awareness about the legal provisions and rights available to women under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act. The seminar was graced by Mr. A.S. Syam Sunder, Advocate, High Court, Andhra Pradesh, who served as the resource person and provided insightful guidance on addressing domestic violence through legal channels. Participants from various departments attended the seminar, actively engaging in discussions and seeking clarifications on relevant laws and remedies.

During the seminar, Mr. Syam Sunder elaborated on the responsibilities of authorities, the process of filing complaints, and the protective measures available for victims. The session included case studies and practical examples to help attendees understand real-world applications of the law. The interactive format encouraged students and faculty to participate in question-and-answer sessions, enhancing their understanding of women's legal rights and the importance of seeking timely intervention. The seminar concluded with a strong emphasis on empowering women through knowledge and promoting a safer environment within homes and communities.

OUTCOMES

The seminar enhanced participants' awareness about the legal provisions and rights available for the protection of women from domestic violence. The session improved understanding of support systems, helplines, and counseling services available for victims. The program strengthened confidence among women to report incidents and seek timely assistance. The participants gained clarity on preventive measures and the role of society in addressing domestic violence. The seminar encouraged a sense of responsibility among students and staff to promote a safe and supportive environment.

WORKSHOP ON PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT ACT (POSH)

Date : 19/08/2025
Time : 3:00 P.M to 4:00 P.M
Venue : CV Raman Hall

OBJECTIVES

The workshop aimed to create awareness about the provisions and significance of the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act among students and staff. It intended to educate participants about their rights, responsibilities, and the legal framework related to workplace safety. The session focused on explaining the role and functioning of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). It sought to promote a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment free from harassment. The workshop endeavored to empower participants to report incidents confidently and support victims appropriately.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized a Workshop on Prevention of Sexual Harassment Act (POSH) on 19/08/2025 at KLEF with the objective of creating awareness about the provisions and implementation of the POSH Act. The session was graced by eminent resource persons including Smt. Rayapati Sailaja, AP Chairperson, Women Commission; Smt. Ravuri Suez, Director, MAARPU Trust and Former Joint Director of AP Mahila Commission, Government of A.P.; and Smt. Anupama, Advocate, High Court, AP. The speakers elaborated on the legal framework, rights of women employees, and the responsibilities of institutions in ensuring a safe and secure workplace environment.

The workshop provided detailed insights into the constitution and functioning of Internal Complaints Committees (ICC), procedures for filing complaints, and the importance of maintaining confidentiality and sensitivity while handling cases. The resource persons shared practical case studies and real-life experiences to help participants understand the seriousness of workplace harassment issues. The interactive session enabled faculty members and students to clarify their doubts and strengthened their commitment towards promoting a respectful and harassment-free campus.

OUTCOMES

The participants gained comprehensive awareness about the provisions of the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act and its legal implications. The workshop enhanced understanding of workplace rights, responsibilities, and grievance redressal mechanisms. Faculty and students developed clarity on the roles and functions of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). The session strengthened confidence among women to report incidents of harassment without fear. The program promoted a safer, more respectful, and gender-sensitive environment within the institution.

WORKSHOP ON SELF DEFENSE TECHNIQUES

Date : 29/07/2025
Time : 03:00 P.M to 04:00 P.M
Venue : Rose Hall

OBJECTIVES

The workshop aimed to equip participants with basic self-defense techniques to protect themselves in unsafe situations. It intended to build confidence and promote a sense of personal safety among women students and staff. It focused on creating awareness about situational alertness and risk assessment in public and private spaces. It sought to encourage physical fitness and mental preparedness to respond effectively to threats. It endeavored to empower women with practical skills to enhance their self-reliance and resilience.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized a Workshop on Self Defence Techniques on 29/07/2025 at KLEF with the objective of empowering women students and staff with practical safety skills. The session was conducted by Mrs. B. Kerthika, Self-Defence Trainer from Vijayawada, who shared her professional expertise and hands-on training methods. The workshop commenced with an introduction to the importance of self-awareness, situational alertness, and confidence in preventing unsafe situations.

During the session, the resource person demonstrated various self-defence techniques, including basic blocking, striking, and escape methods that could be used in real-life scenarios. Participants actively engaged in practice drills and learned simple yet effective strategies to protect themselves during emergencies. The workshop successfully enhanced the confidence, preparedness, and sense of security among the attendees.

OUTCOMES

The participants gained practical knowledge of basic self-defense techniques and personal safety strategies. The workshop enhanced their confidence to handle emergency and threatening situations effectively. The attendees developed awareness about situational alertness and risk prevention measures. The session improved their physical readiness and response skills through hands-on demonstrations. The program strengthened their sense of empowerment and encouraged proactive approaches toward personal safety.

GUEST LECTURE ON GENDER SENSITIZATION

Date : 28/07/2025
Time : 03:00 P.M to 04:00 P.M
Venue : Rose Hall

OBJECTIVES

The session aimed to create awareness about gender equality and sensitivity among students. It focused on educating participants about the social, cultural, and psychological aspects of gender issues. The lecture intended to encourage respectful and inclusive behavior in academic and professional settings. It sought to highlight the importance of preventing gender-based discrimination and harassment. The program aimed to empower students to become proactive advocates of gender equity in their communities.

DESCRIPTION

The KLEF Women Development Cell organized a Guest Lecture on Gender Sensitization on 28/07/2025 at KLEF, aiming to create awareness about gender equality and promote respectful interactions across all spheres of life. The session was conducted by Dr. Mastanbi Shaik from the Department of Veterinary and A.H. Extension Education, NTR College of Veterinary Science, Gannavaram, who shared valuable insights on gender issues, stereotypes, and the importance of fostering an inclusive environment. The lecture highlighted real-life examples and encouraged participants to critically reflect on social norms and attitudes towards gender roles.

The program provided an interactive platform for students and faculty to engage with the resource person, ask questions, and discuss practical strategies to address gender bias in their personal and professional lives. Various case studies and thought-provoking activities were incorporated to make the session more impactful, ensuring participants left with a deeper understanding of gender sensitivity and a commitment to promote equality within the campus and the wider community.

OUTCOMES

Participants gained a deeper understanding of gender sensitivity and equality. Awareness about gender stereotypes and biases was significantly enhanced. Attendees learned effective ways to promote respect and inclusivity. The session encouraged open discussions on gender-related issues. Students and staff became more confident in addressing gender-based concerns.
