Sub: Conduction of Guest Lecture on "An overview of Biosimilars Development" at KL College of Pharmacy, KLEF – Communication - Reg.

Ref: Letter dated 01-03-2024 from Dr. Buchi N. Nalluri, Director-Life Sciences and forwarded by Dr.G. Chakravarthy, Principal, KL College of Pharmacy.

This is to inform that K L College of Pharmacy (Department of Pharmaceutics) will be organizing Guest Lecture on An overview of Biosimilars Development" being delivered by eminent speaker Mr. Pusapati Madan Ranjit, Senior Scientist, Clinical Project Manager, CuraTeQ Biologics Pvt Limited, Hyderabad-502329., Hyderabad.

Objective: The Guest Lecture will impart a clear understanding of the development process of biosimilars, including regulatory requirements, scientific principles, and market considerations, to equip them with knowledge essential for navigating the rapidly evolving landscape of biologic medicines and to empower students with foundational knowledge crucial for their future roles in pharmaceutical research and industry.

Webinar Details:

Date and Time: 3rd March 2024, Saturday, 11.00 am to 12.30pm

Registration Fee: Free

Registration: Registrations are to be done for the same through the following link.

KLCP- Guest Lecture on An overview of Biosimilars Development

Session Outline:

The guest lecture on the "An Overview of Biosimilars Development" has offered a comprehensive exploration into this rapidly evolving sector of biopharmaceuticals. the session has provided a foundational understanding of biosimilars, delineating their definition, regulatory framework, and significance in modern healthcare.

The session has emphasized on elucidating the complexities of biosimilar regulation and approval pathways across various regions, including the United States, Europe, and emerging markets.

The lecture delved into the intricate scientific principles governing biosimilarity assessment, encompassing analytical characterization, non-clinical studies, and clinical trials. Practical insights into the challenges encountered during biosimilar development, such as manufacturing intricacies and immunogenicity concerns, have been addressed to foster a nuanced comprehension of the process.

Furthermore, the session has explored the economic dynamics surrounding biosimilars, including pricing strategies, market competition, and healthcare system implications.

The attendees have gained a holistic understanding of biosimilars development, equipped with the knowledge to navigate this dynamic landscape and contribute to the advancement of accessible and affordable biologic therapies.

The faculty and students of pharmacy benefited from this Webinar.

Brochure:

The brochure is a promotional graphic for a guest lecture. At the top, it features logos for KL University, College of Pharmacy, and various accreditation bodies (NAAC, NIRF, etc.). The central focus is a circular portrait of the resource person, Pusapati Madan Ranjit, with the text 'RESOURCE PERSON' below it. To the right, a yellow banner reads 'A Guest Lecture on AN OVERVIEW OF BIOSIMILARS DEVELOPMENT'. Below this, the date and time are listed: 'Date: 02/03/2024 Time: 11:00 AM'. The organizing committee is 'KL College of Pharmacy'. A contact person, Dr. Mobeen Shaik, is listed with his phone number. A QR code for registration is provided.
