Report on Intramurals for Students (Men & Women)

The Department of Physical Education at KLEF (Deemed to be University) successfully conducted intramural sports competitions for students (both men and women) to promote active lifestyles, teamwork, and holistic development held from 3rd to 17th January 2025, the program featured a diverse range of sports, including athletics, team games, individual events, and wellness activities such as yoga. With enthusiastic student participation and strong organizational support, the event fostered a spirit of healthy competition and community engagement, aligning with the university's commitment to student well-being and inclusive excellence.

To foster an active lifestyle and promote holistic development through sports, the Department of Physical Education at KLEF (Deemed to be University) organized intramural competitions for all students (both men and women). This initiative aimed to encourage mass participation, sportsmanship, teamwork, and recreational involvement among the student body.

The official circular announcing the intramural program was released on 20th December 2024, with registration open from 20th to 25th December 2024. The schedule of events was displayed on the university notice board on 27th December 2024.

The following sports and games were included in the intramurals:

- Athletics
- Badminton
- Basketball
- Cricket
- Chess
- Tennis
- Table Tennis
- Throwball
- Kho-Kho
- Volleyball
- Kabaddi
- Yoga
- Powerlifting

The competitions were conducted from 3rd to 17th January 2025, between 3:00 PM and 6:00 PM daily. These activities provided students with a platform to showcase their athletic talents, develop a competitive spirit, and engage in constructive physical activity.

Overall, the intramural sports program was a great success, reflecting the university's commitment to student wellness and inclusive participation. The department expresses gratitude to all participants, volunteers, and faculty who contributed to the smooth conduct of the events.
