Report on Intramurals for Students (Men& Women)

The Department of Physical Education at KLEF (Deemed to be University) successfully conducted intramural sports competitions for students (Men and Women) to promote active lifestyles, teamwork, and holistic development. Held from January 13th to 17th 2026, the program featured a diverse range of sports including athletics, team games, individual events, and wellness activities such as yoga. With enthusiastic student participation and strong organizational support, the event fostered a spirit of healthy competition and community engagement, aligning with the university's commitment to student well-being and inclusive excellence.

To foster an active lifestyle and promote holistic development through sports, the Department of Physical Education at KLEF (Deemed to be University) successfully organized intramural competitions for all students (Men and Women). This initiative aimed to encourage mass participation, sportsmanship, teamwork, and recreational involvement among the student body.

The official circular announcing the intramural program was released on November 15, 2026 with registration open from December 1st to 9th, 2025. The schedule of events was displayed on the university notice board on December 10, 2025.

The following sports and games were included in the intramurals:

Athletics
Badminton
Basketball
Cricket
Chess
Tennis
Table Tennis
Throw ball
Kho-Kho
Volleyball
Kabaddi
Yoga
Power lifting

The competitions were conducted from January 12th to 18th 2025, between 4:00PM and 6:00PM daily. These activities provided students with a platform to showcase their athletic talents, develop a competitive spirit, and engage in constructive physical activity.

Overall, the intramural sports program was a great success, reflecting the university's commitment to student wellness and inclusive participation. The department expresses gratitude to all participants, volunteers, and faculty who contributed to the smooth conduct of the events.
