To help newly joined faculty improve their teaching and management skills, adjust to the culture of higher education institutions, and better understand their professional responsibilities at the new work place, a five-day faculty induction program has been conducted by the Academic Staff College (ASC), KLEF.

(Day-1) 2-11- 2023

The program started on 02-11-2023 at 2:00 PM with the inaugural address by Principal, ASC, Dr. I. Govardhini. She welcomed all the newly joined faculty to the KLEF family and wished them to have a great career ahead at KL University.

Principal, ASC, Dr. I. Govardhini giving inaugural address

Day-1(2-11- 2023) –Session-1: Dr. K.Subba Rao, Registrar, University Code of Conduct and Policy related Matters.

Registrar, Dr. K. Subba Rao, addressing the faculty

Dr. K. Subba Rao in his speech outlined that university's Code of Conduct and policies are crucial documents that outline the expectations and regulations governing the behavior and actions of students, faculty, staff, and sometimes even visitors within the university community. He also addressed on academic integrity, behavioural expectations, residential life policies, use of universitie's facilities and resources, privacy and confidentiality and consequences for violations etc.,

Day-1(2-11- 2023) – Session-2: Sri Hari Kiran Vege, Dean (Addl) Academics, Student – Centered Education and Academic Excellence.

Dr. Harikiran Vege addressing the faculty on student centered education

Dean Academics (Addl), Sri. Hari Kiran Vege addressed the faculty on student-centered education and academic excellence. An educational strategy known as "student-centered education" puts the student at the center of the learning process. Teachers operate as facilitators or guides for students who are actively engaged in their own learning, as opposed to being passive recipients of knowledge. This method places a strong emphasis on adjusting instruction to each student's unique needs, interests, and talents in order to foster their sense of agency, autonomy and capacity for self-directed learning.

Day-2(3-11-2023) – Seesion-1: Dr.V. Rajesh, Dean-Planning & Development, Physical facilities and resources.

Dean, P&D, Dr. V. Rajesh addressing the participants

Dean, Planning and Development, Dr. V. Rajesh addressed the faculty on physical facilities at the university. He outlined that the Planning and Development Division formulates short-term and long-term plans, policies, procedures to operationalize various programmes and activities of the University. The Division consists of Dean (Planning and Development) and 6 Associate Deans looking after various activities and with various Heads and supporting staff. The Division acts as secretariat for the Planning & Monitoring Board (PB), a statutory body of the institution Deemed to be University, and its Standing Committee. The Planning & Monitoring Board shall be the principal planning body of the institution deemed to be university and shall be responsible for the monitoring of the development programmes of the institution deemed to be university.

Day-2(3-11-2023) – Session-2: Dr. B. Jaya Kumar Singh, Dean-R&D, Institution’s Research Culture, Priorities and Research funding Opportunities.

Dr.B. Jaya Kumar Singh, Dean, Research & Development addressed the faculty on R&D Policy of the University. He elaborated that the research policy is to bring a vibrant atmosphere of research among faculty and researchers. The university encourages the faculty and researchers to carry out their research effectively by providing all the necessary facilities within the university.

The university is equipped with well established research laboratories in all the departments and most of the faculty members are with PhD qualification continuing research in diverse areas and many scholars carrying out their research. The session also included various research like academic research, sponsored and internal research, extension and extramural research, innovation, incubation, entrepreneur development and IPR. Dr. Singh also emphasized that the university has a separate incentive policy for researchers who publish their research work in reputed journals.
