Day 1, 11-07-2024

The first day of the workshop focused on introducing the participants to the fundamentals of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and their relevance to MSMEs, startups, and academic institutions. The sessions covered the following key topics:

Introduction to Intellectual Property Rights (IPR):

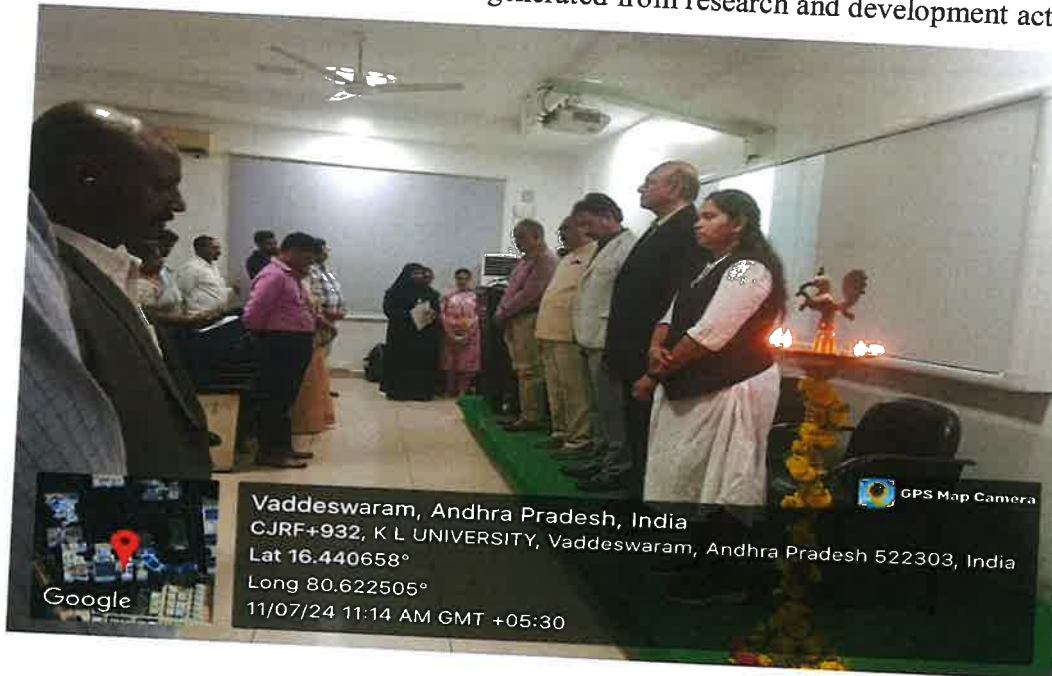

The session began with a comprehensive overview of IPR, including patents, trademarks, copyrights, and industrial designs. The speakers emphasized the importance of IPR in safeguarding innovations and maintaining a competitive edge in the market.

Significance of IPR for MSMEs and Startups:

This session highlighted how MSMEs and startups can leverage IPR to protect their innovations, enhance market value, and secure funding. Case studies were presented to illustrate successful IPR strategies in various industries.

IPR and Higher Educational Institutions:

The role of IPR in academic and research settings was discussed, with a focus on how educational institutions can manage and commercialize intellectual assets generated from research and development activities.

Day 2,12/07/2024

The second day of the workshop delved deeper into specific aspects of IPR, providing participants with practical knowledge and hands-on experience in IPR management.

Introduction to IPR – An Insight into Trademark, Design, and Copyright Filing and Prosecution Procedures:

This session provided a detailed explanation of the processes involved in filing trademarks, designs, and copyrights. The participants were guided through the e-filing procedures, examination stages, and the overall prosecution process. Real-world examples and case studies were used to illustrate common challenges and solutions in IPR filings.

MSME Schemes and Incentives for IPR, Incubations, and Startup Funding Schemes:

The session covered various government schemes and incentives available to MSMEs and startups to support their IPR activities. Participants were introduced to funding opportunities, incubation programs, and other resources that can help them protect and commercialize their innovations.

Understanding Prior Art Search, Citations, Patent Classifications, and Patent Families:

The concept of prior art search was explained, highlighting its importance in the patent filing process. The session also covered patent classifications, citations, and the concept of patent families. Participants were introduced to patent databases and tools that facilitate efficient patent searching.

Hands-on Session on Patent Tools – Searching and Drafting:

In this practical session, participants were given the opportunity to work with patent search tools. They were guided through the process of conducting prior art searches and drafting patent applications, with experts providing tips and feedback on best practices.

Mr. Ajit, Joint Controller Chennai Patent office, addressing the participants

Day 3, 13/07/2024

The final day of the workshop focused on the protection and management of IPRs in research, educational institutions, startups, and corporates. The sessions were as follows:

Identifying IPRs – Innovations from Research and Projects:

This session emphasized the importance of identifying potential IPRs arising from research projects and academic work. Participants were taught how to recognize and document innovations that could be protected under IPR laws.

IPR Protection and Policies for Educational Institutions, Startups, and Corporates:

The session discussed the development and implementation of IPR policies within educational institutions, startups, and corporates. Best practices for managing intellectual property portfolios, including licensing and commercialization strategies, were shared with the participants.

Plant Varieties, Geographical Indications, and Trade Secrets:

The workshop concluded with a session on specialized areas of IPR, such as plant variety protection, geographical indications (GIs), and trade secrets. The session provided insights into the legal frameworks governing these forms of IPR and their significance in various industries.

The three-day national workshop on "Innovation and Intellectual Property Rights for MSME, Startups, and Higher Educational Institutions" was a resounding success. The participants gained valuable insights into the complex world of IPR, equipping them with the knowledge and skills needed to protect and manage their intellectual assets effectively. The interactive sessions, case studies, and hands-on experiences provided a well-rounded understanding of IPR and its applications.

Feedback from participants indicated a high level of satisfaction with the content, delivery, and practical relevance of the workshop. The Academic Staff College and KL-Intellectual Property Facilitation Centre plan to continue offering such workshops in the future to support the growth and innovation of MSMEs, startups, and academic institutions across the country.
