Subject: Reminder: Capacity Building Programme on Faculty Well-Being – 12 May 2026

Dear Faculty Member,

Greetings from Academic Staff College.

This is a gentle reminder to attend the Capacity Building Programme on "From Stress to Strength: Empowering Faculty Well-Being and Student Support", organized under the AICTE–Distinguished Professional Scheme.

Date: 12 May 2026
Venue: New Seminar Hall
Time: 2:00PM to 5:30PM

You are requested to be present at the venue at least 5 minutes before the session begins and maintain punctuality. The session will be delivered by an AICTE Distinguished Professional who is travelling a long distance to conduct this programme.

Your active participation is highly expected. Kindly treat this as important and attend without fail.

Attendance report will be submitted to Pro-VC Sir.

Warm Regards

Introduction

The Academic Staff College, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Value Education Cell, KLEF, successfully organized a Capacity Building Programme on "From Stress to Strength: Empowering Faculty Well-Being and Student Support" under the prestigious AICTE–Distinguished Professional Scheme (AICTE–DPS) on 12th May 2026 at the KL University, Vaddeswaram Campus.

The programme was organized with the primary objective of fostering awareness among faculty members regarding mental health, emotional resilience, and stress management in academic environments. In today's rapidly evolving educational landscape, faculty members shoulder multifaceted responsibilities that extend beyond classroom teaching to include mentoring, counseling, administrative responsibilities, research commitments, and student support. Recognizing the increasing emotional and professional pressures faced by educators, the programme aimed to provide practical strategies and psychological insights to help faculty members maintain personal well-being while effectively supporting students experiencing emotional and psychological challenges.

The programme served as a meaningful platform for faculty members to reflect on the significance of mental wellness, healthy coping mechanisms, emotional intelligence, and interpersonal effectiveness in educational institutions. Through interactive sessions, reflective discussions, and practical demonstrations, participants were encouraged to strengthen their emotional competencies and contribute toward creating supportive and empathetic learning environments.

Objectives of the Programme

The Capacity Building Programme was organized with the following objectives:

- To create awareness about the importance of mental well-being among faculty members.
- To provide practical strategies for stress management and emotional resilience.
- To enhance understanding of emotional intelligence and human behavior in academic settings.
- To strengthen faculty capacity to identify and support students facing emotional and psychological challenges.
- To promote healthy coping mechanisms, work–life balance, and positive mentoring practices.
- To encourage empathetic communication and supportive learning environments within educational institutions.

Inaugural Session

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the dignitaries, faculty members, and participants. The inaugural session set a thoughtful and reflective tone for the day by emphasizing the importance of emotional wellness and resilience in the teaching profession.

Welcome to Dr. Jyotirmaya Satpathy by the organizers

The dignitaries present for the programme included:

- Dr. K.S. Jagannadha Rao, Pro-Chancellor
- Dr. K. Subba Rao, Registrar
- Dr. K. Rama Krishna, Dean – Quality
- Dr. Radhika Rani Chintala, Principal, Academic Staff College

The programme formally began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the dignitaries, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance through knowledge and wisdom.

Welcome Address

The Welcome Address was delivered by Dr. Radhika Rani Chintala, Principal, Academic Staff College. In her address, she warmly welcomed the distinguished guests, resource person, faculty participants, and organizers. She highlighted the increasing relevance of mental health awareness and emotional resilience in educational institutions and emphasized the need for faculty members to maintain emotional balance while fulfilling academic responsibilities.

She stated that faculty well-being directly influences institutional effectiveness and student success, and therefore initiatives focusing on emotional wellness and stress management are essential components of faculty development.

Principal, Dr. Radhika Rani giving welcome address

Address by Dean – Quality

Dr. K. Rama Krishna, Dean – Quality, addressed the gathering and emphasized the significance of holistic education and emotionally healthy academic ecosystems. He observed that academic excellence can only flourish in environments where both educators and students feel psychologically safe, emotionally supported, and professionally motivated.

He appreciated the efforts of the Academic Staff College, IQAC, and the Value Education Cell in organizing a programme that addresses one of the most pressing needs of the present educational scenario. He encouraged faculty members to actively implement the insights gained during the sessions in their professional and personal lives.

Dr. K. Rama Krishna, Dean-Quality giving inaugural address

Address by Registrar

The gathering was further addressed by Dr. K. Subba Rao, Registrar, KL Deemed to be University. In his address, he highlighted the crucial role played by faculty members in shaping student behavior, emotional growth, and academic confidence. He emphasized that emotional intelligence and empathy are becoming increasingly important qualities for educators in contemporary higher education systems.

Dr. K. Subba Rao, Registrar, KLEF giving inaugural address

He appreciated the initiative undertaken under the AICTE–Distinguished Professional Scheme and encouraged faculty members to continuously engage in self-development and wellness-oriented practices.

Introduction of the Resource Person

The distinguished resource person for the programme, Col. Dr. Jyotirmaya Satpathy, was formally introduced by Dr. Retna Mony from the Academic Staff College.

Dr. Retna Mony highlighted the remarkable academic and professional achievements of the speaker, including his distinguished service as a former Indian Army officer and his extensive contributions in the areas of leadership, behavioral sciences, stress management, emotional intelligence, and professional training.

Introduction of resource person by Dr. Retna Mony, Academic Staff College

Session by Col. Dr. Jyotirmaya Satpathy

The highlight of the programme was the highly engaging and insightful session conducted by Col. Dr. Jyotirmaya Satpathy. Drawing from his vast experience in the Indian Army, academia, leadership development, and behavioral sciences, Dr. Satpathy delivered a comprehensive and impactful presentation on stress management, emotional resilience, mental wellness, and faculty effectiveness.

The Session focused on the following major themes:

- Understanding Stress in Academic Life

Dr. Satpathy explained the concept of stress and its various dimensions in professional and personal contexts. He discussed common stressors experienced by faculty members, including academic pressure, workload management, student expectations, deadlines, emotional fatigue, and work-life imbalance. He emphasized that stress is a natural aspect of life; however, unmanaged stress can negatively affect emotional health, professional effectiveness, interpersonal relationships, and institutional productivity.

- Emotional Intelligence and Self-Awareness

A significant portion of the session focused on emotional intelligence and self-awareness. The speaker explained how emotional intelligence influences communication, decision-making, leadership, mentoring, and conflict resolution in academic environments. He encouraged participants to develop greater self-awareness regarding their emotions, behavioral patterns, and responses to challenging situations. Practical examples were shared to demonstrate how emotionally intelligent faculty members can create positive classroom environments and stronger student relationships.

- Resilience Building and Positive Mindset

Dr. Satpathy elaborated on the importance of resilience in overcoming personal and professional challenges. Through real-life examples and inspiring anecdotes from his military and academic experiences, he explained how resilience can be cultivated through disciplined thinking, emotional regulation, optimism, adaptability, and healthy lifestyle practices. Participants were encouraged to focus on strengths rather than limitations and to adopt positive coping mechanisms in stressful situations.

- Faculty Well-Being and Work-Life Balance

The speaker highlighted the need for maintaining a healthy balance between professional responsibilities and personal well-being. He discussed practical strategies such as:

  - Time management
  - Mindfulness practices
  - Physical fitness
  - Positive interpersonal relationships
  - Healthy communication habits
  - Emotional regulation techniques
  - Self-care practices

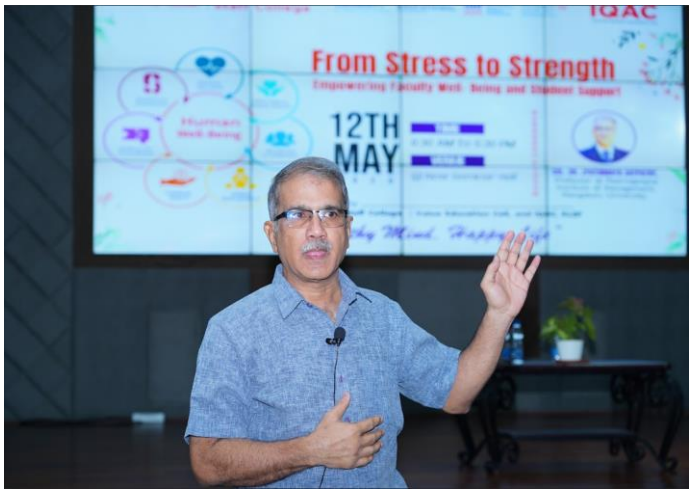

He stressed that emotionally healthy educators are better equipped to guide students effectively and contribute positively to institutional growth.

- Student Support and Mentoring

One of the most impactful aspects of the session was the discussion on identifying and supporting students facing emotional or psychological challenges. Dr. Satpathy sensitized participants to the growing emotional concerns among students, including anxiety, stress, fear of failure, social isolation, and emotional insecurity. He emphasized the importance of empathetic listening, supportive mentoring, non-judgmental communication, and early identification of emotional distress among students. Faculty members were encouraged to become approachable mentors who can provide emotional reassurance and guidance to students during difficult situations.

The programme included several interactive activities, reflective exercises, and open discussions that enabled participants to actively engage with the session content. The resource person encouraged participants to share experiences, discuss workplace stressors, and collectively explore healthy coping strategies. The interactive approach made the sessions lively, relatable, and practically relevant. Participants appreciated the speaker’s ability to combine theoretical understanding with practical applications and real-life experiences. The programme received an enthusiastic and highly positive response from faculty participants representing various departments of the university. Faculty members expressed that the programme helped them reflect upon their own emotional well-being and provided practical tools for managing stress and strengthening professional effectiveness.

Habits of Happy Academics

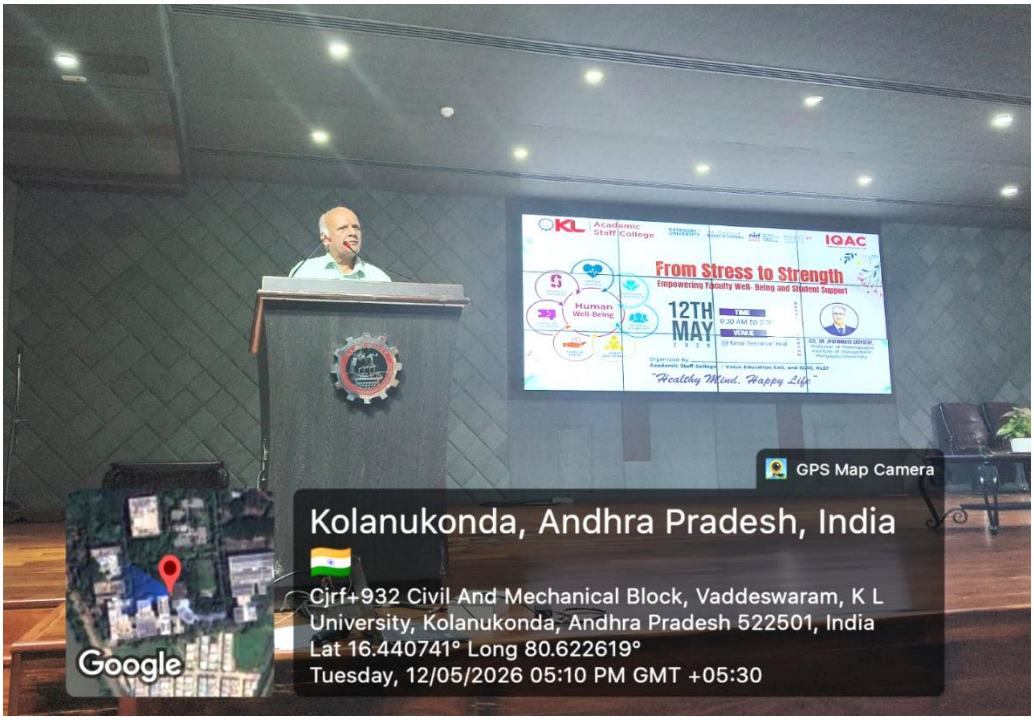

Valedictory Session

During the valedictory session, Dr. K.S. Jagannadha Rao, Pro-Chancellor, KLEF, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest and addressed the participants. In his insightful address, he emphasized the growing importance of mental well-being, emotional resilience, and balanced professional practices in higher education institutions. He appreciated the initiative taken by the Academic Staff College, IQAC, and Value Education Cell in organizing a timely and socially relevant programme focusing on faculty wellness and student support.

Dr. Jagannadha Rao highlighted that faculty members play a pivotal role not only in imparting knowledge but also in shaping the emotional and psychological growth of students. He stressed the need for educators to maintain positivity, empathy, and emotional strength in order to create healthy academic environments. He further encouraged faculty members to adopt the practical strategies and self-care practices shared during the sessions and reiterated the institution's commitment toward promoting holistic development and wellness-oriented academic culture at KLEF.

Dr. K.S Jagannadha Rao, Pro-Chancellor speaking at the valedictory ceremony

The programme concluded with a valedictory session during which participants expressed gratitude to the organizers and the resource person for conducting a meaningful and transformative programme. The organizers felicitated Col. Dr. Jyotirmaya Satpathy as a token of appreciation for his valuable contribution and inspiring sessions.

Organizers felicitating Col. Dr. Jyotirmaya Satpathy

The Vote of Thanks was delivered by Ms. Manjusha from Academic Staff College, who expressed sincere gratitude to the university management, dignitaries, organizing committees, faculty participants, and the resource person for their support and active participation.

Outcome of the Programme

The Capacity Building Programme successfully achieved its objectives by:

- Enhancing awareness regarding mental wellness and emotional resilience among faculty members.
- Equipping participants with practical stress management strategies.
- Promoting emotional intelligence and empathetic communication practices.
- Strengthening faculty understanding of student emotional support systems.
- Encouraging positive mentoring and healthy coping mechanisms.
- Motivating faculty members to create emotionally supportive academic environments.

Number of Participants

Faculty members from various departments of KL University participated in the programme. A total of 302 faculty members has actively participated in the event.

(Attendance sheet enclosed for records.)

Conclusion

The Capacity Building Programme on "From Stress to Strength: Empowering Faculty Well-Being and Student Support" was highly informative, engaging, and impactful. The initiative reflected KLEF's commitment toward fostering emotionally healthy educational environments and promoting holistic faculty development. The insightful sessions conducted by Col. Dr. Jyotirmaya Satpathy provided participants with meaningful perspectives on emotional wellness, resilience, stress management, and student mentoring. The programme successfully encouraged faculty members to prioritize mental well-being while continuing to contribute effectively toward academic excellence and student success. The organizers expressed their sincere gratitude to the university leadership, dignitaries, organizing committees, participants, and the resource person for making the programme a grand success.
