Resource Person : Dr. B. Siva
Nagaiah, Assoc. Professor & Vice-
Principal, ASC

On the first day i.e., 10.12.2018 Dr. B. Siva Nagaiah, Vice Principal, ASC has explained Professional ethics and institutional responsibilities. He outlined the importance of professional ethics in the workplace and as well he stated the institutional responsibilities. He also spoke about the how the Institutions have a dominant impact on both natural and social life-support systems. He also spoke about the Institutions' morally responsible towards society and its members.

On the second day Dr. I. Pavan Kumar, Asst. Professor, KL College of Law explained about the importance of emotional intelligence in the personality development of the individual life. He also explained the ways of developing emotional intelligences that the daily life emotions can be managed and channelized in an optimistic way.

On the third day Dr. I. Pavan Kumar, Asst. Professor, KL College of Law discussed the importance of critical thinking in today's advertisement era. He also that We tend to receive knowledge passively at many stages of education, although we can be highly critical in other aspects of life. It is about asking questions, getting under the surface, finding out what's really going on, testing things out. It helps make you a deep, rather than a „surface“ thinker - able to think and argue independently, explore issues in depth, make connections between ideas, relate them to real life.

On the last day Ms. Usha Rani, Asst. Professor, ASC had explained about the various aspects of self-awareness. She dealt with the terms associated with self-awareness like self-esteem, self- concept, and self-schema. She also highlighted the importance of Johari window in self understanding and as well explained the concept of Erik Erikson in the personality development.

Dr. V. Rajesh, Principal –ASC and Dr. B. Siva Nagaiah, Vice-Principal – ASC thanked the resource persons for conducting the workshop to the satisfaction of the participants. The participation certificates were distributed at the end of the programme.

Resource Persons: Ms. M. Usha Rani, Asst. Professor, ASC & Dr. I. Pavan Kumar, Asst. Professor, College of Law Appreciation Certificates were given by Dr. B. Siva Nagaiah, Vice-Principal, ASC

The session came to end with oral and written feedback from the participants and distribution of certificates to the participants.

OUTCOME

The outcome of the Personality Development workshop is a group of empowered and self-aware individuals who leave the program with a refined and enhanced personality. Participants exhibit improved self-confidence, effective communication and interpersonal skills, and a heightened level of emotional intelligence.

They are equipped to navigate personal and professional challenges with resilience, make more informed decisions, and build more harmonious relationships.

This workshop's impact extends to individuals becoming more confident, self-assured, and adaptable in their personal and professional lives, ultimately contributing to their personal growth, career success, and positive influence in their communities and workplaces.
