ONE-WEEK FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME ON UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUES

Date(s) : 10.12.2019 to 16.12.2019

Location : KLEF

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the one-week Faculty Development Programme on "Universal Human Values" is to empower educators and faculty members with a comprehensive understanding of universal human values, fostering their integration into the educational process. This program aims to equip participants with the knowledge, tools, and pedagogical techniques necessary to effectively impart values such as empathy, compassion, ethics, and social responsibility to their students. By emphasizing the importance of universal human values, the program seeks to inspire faculty members to play a pivotal role in nurturing socially responsible and ethical citizens, thereby contributing to the holistic development of individuals and society at large through education.

DESCRIPTION

The AICTE has introduced a mandatory 3-week Induction Program in the model curriculum for the first-year incoming students since 2018 with a purpose to make students comfortable in the new environment and expose them with various facets of life. Conducting classes on Universal Human Values (UHV) is one of its key components. Further the AICTE circulated the note that all universities/ institutions related to technical education are informed to adopt the model curriculum from the academic session 2018-19.

The purpose of the FDP is for an effective implementation of the induction program and giving exposure of UHV to the teachers who are going to conduct the UHV classes and the AICTE has decided to train faculty member in a ratio of one faculty member to 20 students from each discipline/branch of the institute. For This, AICTE is organizing a series of FDPs throughout the country.

As part of above said introduction on the FDP, the Academic Staff College of KLEF organized a One-week Faculty Development Programme on Student Induction Programme on 'Universal Human Values' from 10.12.2019 to 16.12.2019. Dr. K. Giridhar and Dr. V. Hari Kumar were the resource persons deputed by the AICTE who conducted the FDP emphasizing the significance of University Human Values.

This 7-days' FDP is a full-time, residential workshop from 9am to 5 pm daily. Board and lodging facility is provided for all the outstation participants. The programme is conducted to that extent that the issuance of certificate is tightly governed by the norm of 100% attendance. The faculty members who registered on the AICTE website have attended the programme. A total no of 65 faculty have attended the FDP including 20 external faculty.

The FDP was inaugurated by the hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of KLEF Dr. L S S Reddy. While addressing the participants the Vice-Chancellor emphasized the need for implementing the Student Induction Programme on Universal Human Values very effectively and authentically.

OUTCOME

The outcome of the one-week Faculty Development Programme on "Universal Human Values" is a cadre of educators who are not only well-versed in the principles of universal human values but also adept at incorporating these values into their teaching methods and curricula. Participants emerge with a renewed commitment to infusing empathy, compassion, ethics, and social responsibility into their educational roles, thereby fostering a culture of values-driven learning and character development among their students. This program's impact extends to the educational institution and society at large, as faculty members become instrumental in shaping future generations of individuals who prioritize and practice universal human values, contributing to a more compassionate, ethical, and harmonious world.
