AWARENESS PROGRAM ON WOMEN SAFETY

Date : 21/02/2023
Time : 10.00 A. M to 1:00 Noon
Venue : Z P H School, Duggirala

OBJECTIVES

The primary objectives of organizing an awareness program on women's safety are to empower women with knowledge and skills to enhance their personal safety and security. This program aims to raise awareness about common safety threats and risks faced by women in various settings, including public spaces, workplaces, and homes. It seeks to educate women on self-defense techniques, legal rights, and available support services, fostering a sense of confidence and preparedness. Furthermore, the program aims to promote a culture of respect, gender equality, and community involvement, encouraging both women and society at large to actively contribute to creating safer environments where women can thrive without fear of harassment or violence.

DESCRIPTION

The awareness program on women's safety was successfully organized with the participation of various stakeholders, including women from diverse backgrounds, community leaders, and local authorities by KLEF Women Development Cell/ Women's Forum for Women & girls in Z P H School at Duggirala Village. Resource Person for this program is Dr. P. Sailaja, Associate Professor, Dept. of Law, KLEF.. The program included informative sessions on self- defense techniques, legal rights, and resources available for women's safety. It facilitated open discussions, sharing of personal experiences, and the exchange of ideas, creating an atmosphere of empowerment and solidarity. Participants left the program with increased awareness and knowledge, as well as a heightened sense of confidence and preparedness to protect themselves. Furthermore, the program sparked a commitment among attendees and the broader community to actively work towards creating safer environments for women, emphasizing the importance of gender equality and collective efforts in addressing issues of violence and harassment. Overall, the program achieved its goals of raising awareness, fostering empowerment, and promoting a safer and more inclusive community for women.

OUTCOMES

The outcomes of organizing an awareness program on women's safety include increased awareness and knowledge among women about personal safety measures, self-defense techniques, and available support systems, empowering them to better protect themselves in various situations. Additionally, such programs contribute to improved reporting and response to incidents of violence or harassment, leading to greater accountability and deterrence. They also foster a community-wide commitment to creating safer environments, reducing the prevalence of gender-based violence, and promoting gender equality. Ultimately, the program's success lies in enhancing women's confidence, safety, and well-being, thereby contributing to a society where women can live and move freely without the constant fear of violence or harassment.
