“BONE DENSITY, BODY CHECKUP CAMP”

DATE: 21/09/2023

TIME: 10:00 AM

VENUE: KLEF

OBJECTIVES:

The "Bone Density, Body Checkup Camp," conducted on September 21, 2023, for KLEF faculty and students by M. J. Naidu Hospitals, Vijayawada, and organized by Dr. Srilakshmi and Dr. Sukeerti, aimed to provide comprehensive health assessments and screenings. The objectives of the camp were to assess and monitor bone density levels among participants, conduct thorough body checkups to detect any underlying health issues, and educate attendees on preventive measures and lifestyle modifications to maintain optimal bone health and overall well-being. The event also aimed to raise awareness about the importance of regular health screenings and early detection of health conditions to promote proactive healthcare practices within the university community.

DESCRIPTION:

The camp provided participants with thorough assessments of bone density and overall body health through screenings and checkups conducted by medical professionals. Attendees received personalized health advice and recommendations based on their test results, aimed at promoting bone health and overall well-being. The camp also included educational sessions on preventive measures and lifestyle adjustments to maintain optimal health. Overall, the event successfully promoted proactive healthcare practices and raised awareness about the importance of regular health checkups among the university community.

OUTCOMES:

Participants benefited from comprehensive health assessments and screenings that included bone density measurements and overall body checkups. The camp provided valuable insights into participants' health status, identifying potential issues early and enabling timely interventions. Medical professionals offered personalized health advice and recommendations based on individual test results, empowering attendees to make informed decisions about their health. The event successfully promoted awareness about bone health and preventive healthcare practices, fostering a culture of proactive health management within the university.
