Workshop on “LinkedIn Profile Building & Professional Development

Date: 12.12.2023 (Tuesday)

Timings: From 10:00 AM

Venue: KLEF

Participants Expected: 352

Faculty Participating: 5

Objectives

The primary objective of the Workshop on "LinkedIn Profile Building & Professional Development" is to equip students and teaching staff with the skills necessary to build a strong professional presence on LinkedIn. This workshop aims to enhance career readiness, foster professional networking, and empower participants with tools and strategies to showcase their accomplishments effectively. By focusing on key elements such as profile optimization, branding, and engagement, the event seeks to bridge the gap between academic achievements and professional opportunities.

Description

The Women Development Cell (WDC) at KLEF organized a workshop on "LinkedIn Profile Building & Professional Development" on 12th December 2023. The event was conducted at the KLEF campus and witnessed the active participation of 350 attendees, including students and teaching staff. Faculty coordinators, Dr. K. Ruth Ramya and Dr. K. Sony, facilitated the program, ensuring an engaging and informative experience.

The workshop began with an introduction to LinkedIn as a professional networking platform, emphasizing its importance in career development. Participants were guided through the process of creating an optimized profile, including crafting compelling summaries, showcasing skills and achievements, and utilizing professional photographs. Additionally, the session covered strategies for meaningful networking, engaging with industry professionals, and utilizing LinkedIn features to enhance visibility. Practical demonstrations and hands-on activities allowed participants to apply their learning in real time.

Outcomes

The workshop yielded significant outcomes, both immediate and long-term. Participants gained a deeper understanding of how to use LinkedIn effectively as a career-building tool. Many students and staff members created or updated their profiles during the session, showcasing their academic and professional achievements in a structured and attractive manner.

The session fostered awareness about the importance of personal branding and networking in the competitive job market. Participants were empowered to connect with industry leaders, explore career opportunities, and establish a professional online presence. The practical insights gained from the workshop will serve as a foundation for continuous professional growth, enhancing their prospects in their chosen fields.
