Menstrual Hygiene in Adolescents' Awareness

Date: 13/12/2023

Timings: 10:00 AM onwards

Venue: Jonnalagadda, Guntur

Objectives:

The primary objective of the "Menstrual Hygiene in Adolescents' Awareness" workshop is to educate and raise awareness about the importance of menstrual hygiene among schoolchildren in Jonnalagadda, Guntur. The workshop aims to address common misconceptions about menstruation, provide accurate and scientific information on menstrual health, and equip adolescent girls with the knowledge and tools necessary to manage their menstrual health with confidence and dignity. The session will also highlight the importance of hygiene practices and available resources to promote menstrual well-being in rural areas.

Description:

The workshop will be conducted as part of the outreach initiative under the Women's Forum and will involve a series of interactive sessions, presentations, and discussions led by health experts and faculty from KLEF. The focus will be on educating adolescents about safe menstrual practices, proper use of sanitary products, and the significance of menstrual hygiene in preventing infections and promoting overall health. Additionally, the workshop will address cultural taboos, the role of schools and communities in supporting girls' menstrual health, and provide essential tips for maintaining hygiene during menstruation. Through engaging activities, the session aims to create an open dialogue around menstruation and encourage positive behavior changes among adolescents.

Outcomes:

The expected outcomes of the workshop include increased awareness and understanding of menstrual hygiene among the adolescent participants. By the end of the workshop, students will have a better understanding of the biological aspects of menstruation, how to maintain proper hygiene during their menstrual cycle, and the confidence to break the stigma surrounding menstrual health. Moreover, the workshop will empower adolescents to share knowledge about menstrual hygiene with their peers, thereby fostering a culture of awareness and support within their communities. The event will also encourage schools to incorporate menstrual health education into their curriculum and establish better resources for menstrual hygiene in rural areas.
