Seminar on “Gender Justice at Workplace”

Date: 28th February 2024 (Wednesday)

Timings: From 10:00 AM

Venue: KLEF, In-house

Objectives

The primary objective of the seminar on “Gender Justice at Workplace” is to enhance understanding and raise awareness about gender-based discrimination and harassment at the workplace. It aims to inform participants about their legal rights and responsibilities concerning gender equality in the workplace and to provide practical strategies for addressing gender injustice. The seminar also seeks to encourage students and faculty to foster an inclusive and respectful environment by promoting gender justice.

Description

The seminar will be organized by the Women Development Cell (WDC) and Women’s Forum at KLEF, focusing on legal awareness regarding gender justice at the workplace. The event will feature a keynote session by Dr. P. Saija, Associate Professor in the Department of Law at KLEF, who will delve into various aspects of gender justice, including legal frameworks, workplace rights, and measures to combat gender-based harassment and discrimination. The seminar will also include discussions on creating gender-sensitive work environments, providing resources, and addressing challenges faced by individuals experiencing gender injustice. This session will encourage active participation from both students and faculty to engage in constructive dialogue about gender equality.

Outcomes

The seminar will equip participants with essential knowledge on gender justice laws and regulations, making them aware of the necessary steps to protect themselves and others from gender-based discrimination and harassment in the workplace. It is expected to lead to a more informed and sensitive campus community, fostering a culture of gender equity and mutual respect. Additionally, participants will leave the seminar with actionable insights on how to contribute to creating safe, supportive, and inclusive spaces at work and within educational institutions. This event will also serve as a platform to network and collaborate on initiatives aimed at promoting gender justice in academic and professional settings.
