SEMINAR ON CURBING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

Date: 25.11.2021

Time: 11:00 A.M to 1:00 P.M

Venue Peacock Hall, KLEF

OBJECTIVES

The primary objective of organizing a webinar on "Curbing Violence Against Women" is to raise awareness, educate, and mobilize participants to actively address and combat the pervasive issue of gender-based violence. Through this webinar, we aim to provide a platform for discussing the root causes, prevalence, and impact of violence against women, while also highlighting effective prevention strategies, support systems, and legal frameworks. By fostering dialogue, promoting empathy, and sharing knowledge, we seek to empower individuals, communities, and organizations to take collective action in order to create a safer and more equitable society where violence against women is no longer tolerated.

DESCRIPTION

Women's Forum in association with Department of AI&DS, KLEF conducted a Seminar on "curbing violence against women" in the occasion of "International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women" to create awareness among women about violence on 25th November, 2021 from 11.00 A.M to 1.00 Noon.

Event started with a Welcome note and Introduction of Event by Dr. S. V. N. L. Lalitha, Professor, EEE Department and Women's Forum Convener. She has also addressed gathering and made students aware about the violence happening against women at present. Dr. B. Tirapathi Reddy, HOD, AI & DS congratulated Women's Forum for conducting such useful program. Dr. K.R.S. Prasad, Dean Student affairs explained about students importance of knowing laws for women safety.

Recourse Person:

Mrs. G.R Radhika, Superintend of police, Cybercrime, APCID. A native of Ananthapur district of Andhra Pradesh, She was selected as deputy superintendent of police in 2007. Before joining the police she was an English lecturer. Being DSP she achieved so many goals which led her for promotion as SP, Cybercrime, APCID. She now is a best role model for all girls to be brave and independent. She is a Mountaineer who scaled the mountains of prominence in India and abroad. She climbed the Mt Everest and also pursued the seven summits challenge, climbing the highest peak of each mountain of the 7 Continents. She has been given Award in the field of Adventure on Telangana state formation day by TS CM on 2nd June, 2016 for her successful climb of Mt Everest. She has been felicitated by Hon'ble AP CM after successful climb of Mt Elbrus. She has been given 'Women Icon of India', National Award under the women in Uniform Category for her extraordinary feat of climbing 5 Highest peaks in 7 Continents, by Master minds organization foundation, Chennai on the Women's day 2018. She is selected as the 'Best Woman Police Officer' and felicitated by the then CM on International Women's day on 8th March, 2019. She has been given 'Special Recognition Award' in the field of Mountaineering; by the AP Home minister on October 16th 2019. Mrs. G. R. Radhika, made the seminar interesting discussing real world problems faced by women, the impact it makes on the lives of them. She covered all the related Rights women have in society which are being neglected and criticized these days allowing growth of violence. She advised students to be wise and not involve in any kind of illegal activities.

She also explained all the legal consequences one has to face if they involve in any illegal activities. She clearly made a point about gender equality and Disha app.

She motivated students to support and fight for the eradication of Violence against Women.

Interaction with such people having great experience in the field made the students gain the best insights about the societal problems faced by women due to different forms of Violation and also strategies to overcome them.

Dr. Habibulla Khan, Advisor-Dean Student Affairs has felicitated Radhika mam for making efforts to motivate students with her valuable speech.

OUTCOMES

The outcomes of organizing a webinar on "Curbing Violence Against Women" are expected to include increased awareness and understanding of the issue, with participants gaining insights into the root causes and consequences of gender-based violence. This webinar can lead to strengthened community and organizational responses, as well as the establishment of support networks for survivors. Additionally, it may inspire participants to become advocates for change, leading to the implementation of policies and initiatives aimed at preventing violence against women, promoting gender equality, and fostering a safer environment for all. Ultimately, the webinar strives to contribute to a society where violence against women is reduced, survivors are supported, and gender equity and respect are upheld as fundamental values.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a formal address, and it is the first of its kind since the signing of the Constitution. The President, James Buchanan, is addressing the Congress, and he is doing so in a very formal and dignified manner. He is discussing the state of the Union, and he is also discussing the issue of slavery. He is saying that the Union is in a state of peril, and that he is doing everything in his power to preserve it. He is also saying that he is not going to interfere with the rights of the States, and that he is not going to interfere with the rights of the people. He is saying that he is not going to interfere with the rights of the States, and that he is not going to interfere with the rights of the people.
