POSTER & INVITATION

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of organizing an intercollegiate girls' fest on the theme "Break the Bias" are multi-faceted. Firstly, the fest aims to raise awareness among young women about the pervasive nature of gender biases and stereotypes and to empower them to challenge and dismantle these biases in all aspects of life, from education to career opportunities and societal norms. It seeks to promote meaningful dialogues and discussions that foster a deeper understanding of the root causes and consequences of gender bias. Additionally, the fest intends to inspire and motivate young women to become vocal advocates for gender equality, motivating them to take action and participate actively in initiatives that promote inclusivity and gender equity. Furthermore, it strives to provide a platform for artistic expression, cultural exchange, and celebration of women's achievements, showcasing their talents and diverse perspectives. Ultimately, the goal is to encourage and inspire young women to break free from bias and stereotypes, fostering a more equitable and inclusive society where all individuals can thrive irrespective of gender.

DESCRIPTION

Hanumantha Rao, Dean Student Affairs graced the dias along with guests. Dr. G. Vani Mohan, IAS, Principal Secretary, Dept. of Youth Services was invited as chief guest followed by cultural night.

OUTCOMES

The intercollegiate girls' fest on the theme "Break the Bias" has resulted in significant outcomes. Participants left the fest with heightened awareness and a strengthened commitment to challenging and dismantling gender biases in their lives. The event fostered a sense of empowerment and unity among young women, inspiring them to become active advocates for gender equality within their colleges and communities. It also provided a platform for creative expression and cultural exchange, celebrating the talents and diverse perspectives of women. Furthermore, the fest contributed to fostering a more inclusive and equitable mindset among all participants, promoting dialogue and understanding about the consequences of gender bias.

Overall, the festival has played a pivotal role in inspiring a new generation of young women to take action, break free from bias and stereotypes, and contribute to a more equitable and inclusive society where gender should never be a barrier to achievement.
