OBJECTIVES:

The objectives of the Seminar on Cancer Awareness are multi-fold. Firstly, it aims to educate participants about the various types of cancer, their risk factors, and early detection methods, promoting a deeper understanding of this prevalent health issue. Secondly, the seminar seeks to raise awareness about cancer prevention strategies, emphasizing the importance of lifestyle choices, screenings, and vaccination where applicable. Additionally, it aims to provide a platform for cancer survivors and medical experts to share their experiences and knowledge, offering inspiration and support to those affected by cancer. Ultimately, the goal is to empower participants with the information and motivation to take proactive steps toward cancer prevention, early detection, and effective coping, contributing to a society that is more informed and resilient in the face of this challenging disease.

DESCRIPTION:

The Cancer Awareness Seminar, held on 24/10/2019 at KLEF, served as a crucial platform to disseminate knowledge and raise awareness about cancer, its prevention, early detection, treatment options, and support mechanisms. The seminar brought together a diverse audience of 144 individuals, including healthcare professionals, cancer survivors, caregivers, and concerned community members.

The program started with a welcome note by Dr. M. Sreedevi, Convener, Women's Forum, KLEF.

She introduced the resource person Dr. Kesava Ram Gopal, MD (NIMS), ECMO, Radiation Oncologist to the gathering. Dr. Kesava Ram Gopal explained to students that Cancer is a deadly disease which is caused due to uncontrolled growth of the cells and forms from the extra mass tissue known as tumor. The resource person spoke about cancer risk factors and the latest treatment advancements. He also spoke about self-examinations, cancer prevention strategies, and lifestyle modification. Expert engaged in open Q&A sessions, addressing participants' queries and concerns.

OUTCOMES:

The outcomes of the Seminar on Cancer Awareness are impactful and lifechanging. Participants leave the seminar with a heightened awareness of cancer risks, prevention strategies, and the importance of early detection. This knowledge leads to healthier lifestyle choices, increased participation in cancer screenings, and proactive steps to reduce cancer risks. Additionally, the seminar fosters a sense of solidarity and support among those affected by cancer, providing a platform for sharing experiences and emotional healing. The awareness generated by the seminar contributes to a community that is better informed, empowered to take charge of their health, and more compassionate toward individuals battling cancer. Ultimately, these outcomes work toward reducing the burden of cancer, improving survival rates, and enhancing the overall well-being of individuals and communities.

Dr.Kesava Ram Gopal, MD (NIMS), ECMO, Radiation Oncologist addressing the gathering on 24/10/2019.
