SEMINAR ON ROLE OF WOMEN IN ENGINEERING

Date : 15/09/2018
Time : 10:00 A.M to 12.00 Noon
Venue : Jasmine Hall, KLEF

OBJECTIVES

The primary objective of organizing a seminar on "Women in Engineering" is to promote gender diversity and inclusion within the engineering field. This seminar aims to inspire, inform, and empower women to pursue and excel in engineering careers by showcasing the achievements and contributions of women engineers. It seeks to address gender disparities in the engineering profession by fostering a supportive and inclusive environment, providing networking opportunities, and offering insights into overcoming challenges that women may face in this male-dominated field. Ultimately, the seminar aims to encourage more women to pursue engineering education and careers, thereby enriching the talent pool, driving innovation, and promoting a more equitable and diverse engineering community.

DESCRIPTION

KLEF Women's Forum organized a seminar on the topic of "Women in Engineering" on 15.09.18 Mrs Nagalakshmi, CEO Indian Women Network, Andhra Pradesh, India is the resource person. She gave speech about Indian women network and how IWN is helping the students to shape their carriers.

The "Women in Engineering" seminar held recently was a resounding success, dedicated to advancing gender diversity and inclusivity in the engineering field. The event featured accomplished women engineers who shared their experiences and insights, serving as inspirational figures for attendees. The seminar fostered engaging discussions on the challenges and opportunities that women encounter in engineering, offering practical solutions and support networks. Attendees, including students and professionals, had the opportunity to connect, network, and establish mentorship relationships. Overall, the seminar was a pivotal step towards breaking down barriers, encouraging more women to pursue engineering careers, and promoting an environment where their contributions are valued and celebrated in the pursuit of innovation and excellence in the field.

OUTCOMES

The outcomes of organizing a seminar on "Women in Engineering" are multifaceted. Firstly, it can inspire more women to pursue careers in engineering, leading to increased gender diversity within the profession. Secondly, it provides a platform for networking and mentorship, fostering a supportive community where women engineers can share experiences and knowledge. Thirdly, the seminar may challenge stereotypes and biases, contributing to a more inclusive engineering culture. Ultimately, these outcomes work together to promote gender equity in engineering, harness the full potential of diverse perspectives, and drive innovation and progress in the field.
