Objective:

In order to raise awareness and educate the community about heart health care, the KLEF–YRC team conducted an Awareness Program on Heart Health at Veerlapalem village on 21-02-2026.

Description:

The Youth Red Cross (YRC) , Koneru Lakshmaiah Education Foundation (KLEF) organized a Heart Health Awareness Program in Veerlapalem village as part of their community outreach initiative. The program aimed to educate the local community about heart diseases, their symptoms, causes, prevention, and management.

Program Highlights:

- Educational Session: The students conducted an informative session explaining the importance of maintaining heart health and identifying risk factors such as high blood pressure, high cholesterol, diabetes, smoking, and unhealthy lifestyle habits.
- Interactive Q&A Session: Community members actively participated in the discussion and clarified their doubts regarding heart-related health issues and preventive care.
- Pamphlet Distribution: Informative pamphlets were distributed among the villagers to reinforce awareness about heart disease prevention and healthy lifestyle practices.

Procedure of the Event:

1. The KLEF–YRC team arrived at Veerlapalem village at around 10:00 AM.
2. The program began with an introduction explaining the importance of heart health and common heart diseases affecting the population.
3. The event was organized by YRC volunteers from KL University in collaboration with the Veerlapalem village Panchayat and local residents.
4. Awareness activities and discussions were conducted to educate people about risk factors, prevention, and lifestyle changes required for maintaining heart health.

Outcome of the Event:

1. The program successfully raised awareness about heart diseases and preventive healthcare among the local community.
2. The KLEF–YRC team effectively organized the event, ensuring that the objective of community awareness was achieved.
3. The volunteers demonstrated professionalism, dedication, and friendly interaction throughout the program.
4. The residents of Veerlapalem village actively participated and showed interest in learning about heart health and disease prevention.
