Awareness Session: Importance of Blood Donation

Details of the Program:

The Youth Red Cross (YRC), KLEF successfully organized an awareness session on the Importance of Blood Donation on 17-12-2025 at the SAC Hall. The program was conducted in connection with the blood donation camp to educate participants about the lifesaving significance of voluntary blood donation.

The session was delivered by Dr. Meduri Bhaskara Rao, MBBS, C.A.S. (Retd.), Medical Officer, who highlighted the crucial role of blood donation in saving lives, especially for accident victims, surgical patients, cancer patients, and individuals with chronic illnesses. He emphasized that regular voluntary blood donation helps maintain an adequate blood supply and strengthens emergency healthcare services.

Dr. Bhaskara Rao explained donor eligibility criteria, the blood donation process, and post-donation care, while also addressing common myths and misconceptions related to blood donation. The session encouraged participants to overcome fear and actively contribute to this noble cause.

A total of 32 students participated in the awareness program. The session created meaningful awareness, motivated first-time donors, and reinforced a sense of social responsibility among participants. Overall, the program contributed to fostering a culture of compassion and community service on campus.
