REGISTRAR

Objective:

The objective of the Anemia Screening and Health Awareness Program is to promote awareness about anemia, its causes, symptoms, risk factors, prevention, and management among the community. The program aims to facilitate early detection of anemia through hemoglobin screening, provide blood grouping services, and educate participants about the importance of a balanced diet, iron-rich foods, proper nutrition, and healthy lifestyle practices. It also seeks to encourage preventive healthcare, improve health awareness, and promote timely medical consultation and treatment among individuals at risk of anemia.

Procedure of the event

1. The Anemia Screening and Health Awareness Program was organized by Youth Red Cross (YRC), KLEF, on 30th September 2026, from 9:30 AM to 4:00 PM at Ibrahimpatnam.

2. The program focused on creating awareness about anemia, its causes, symptoms, risk factors, prevention, and the importance of early detection and timely treatment.

3. The event included hemoglobin screening, blood grouping, health awareness sessions, nutrition counseling, and guidance on healthy lifestyle practices to promote better health among participants.

4. The program was coordinated by Dr. R. Supriya, Assistant Professor, College of Pharmacy, and YRC Professor-in-Charge, KLEF.

5. The initiative aimed to encourage preventive healthcare, promote awareness of balanced nutrition and iron-rich foods, and emphasize the importance of regular health screening and early medical consultation for the prevention and management of anemia.

Outcome of the Event:

The Anemia Screening and Health Awareness Program successfully promoted awareness about anemia, its causes, symptoms, prevention, and management among the participants. The program provided an opportunity for early identification of potential anemia through hemoglobin screening and helped participants understand the importance of balanced nutrition, iron-rich foods, and healthy lifestyle practices. The health awareness sessions and nutrition counseling encouraged participants to prioritize preventive healthcare, undergo regular health check-ups, and seek timely medical advice when necessary. Overall, the initiative contributed to improving health awareness, promoting early detection of anemia, and encouraging healthier practices within the community.
